Out of Prison Nicolás Buckley, 2021-04-15 In this engaging and original book Nicolás Buckley draws on a unique body of oral history interviews with former armed activists in order to tell stories of ETA from inside Locating these stories in the rapidly changing historical landscape of Spain during the late Franco and transition periods the book challenges straightforward interpretations of the Basque independence movement as alternatively a terrorist organization or victims of Spanish nationalism Buckley combines historical analysis with reflections on his own personal experiences as a young Spanish student growing up in Madrid in the post Franco era arguing for the importance of generation in presenting alternative accounts of ETA from the Spanish perspective and presenting an intriguing account of the role of ETA and Basque nationalism in shaping contemporary Spanish and national identity and social imaginary Weaving together history memory and self reflection this book makes a valuable contribution to the literature on ETA Basque nationalism and contemporary Spanish history Carrie Hamilton Oral Historian Basque Nationalism and Political Violence Cameron Watson,2007 This text examines the relationship between ideas and action through a historical account of how images of violence and warfare pervaded the discourse of Basque nationalism Watson argues that a culture of political violence emerged within the Basque nationalist movement that eventually resulted in the 1959 creation of ETA The Macedonian national question in Greece in the documents of the Communist Party of Greece 1918-1940 Ireneusz Adam_lupkov,2018-12-28 What this book essentially offers us is a clear and concise after the fact account of the decisive role of the Communist Party of Greece in the tragic fate of the Macedonian people in the first half of the 20th century in Aegean Macedonia Professor Michael Seraphinoff The Use of Force and Article 2 of the ECHR in Light of European Conflicts Hannah Russell,2017-11-16 Article 2 of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR in its current form is incomplete and outdated Due to significant development at a legislative and judicial level the right to life spans beyond what is enumerated within Article 2 With the belief that Article 2 is still relevant this book investigates how the right to life can be better protected within Europe It advocates for the modernisation of Article 2 through codifying legislative and judicial developments relevant to this provision in the form of guidelines It also considers the improvements that can be made by the Council of Europe CoE bodies the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR the Committee of Ministers CoM the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe PACE and the CoE Commissioner for Human Rights to encourage adherence to Article 2 and promote effective remedies to prevent future violations It uses the experience from four internal European conflicts the Basque conflict the Chechen conflict the Northern Ireland Troubles and the Turkish Kurdish conflict to illustrate its points Modern Spanish Literature Leslie Alec Warren,1929 Terrorism Richard English,2010-07-08 English offers an authoritative and accessible analysis of arguably the most urgent political problem of the twenty first century providing a considered argument about how we can successfully respond in practice to the terrorist threat Irish Freedom Richard English,2008-09-04 Richard English s brilliant new book now available in paperback is a compelling narrative history of Irish nationalism in which events are not merely recounted but analysed Full of rich detail drawn from years of original research and also from the extensive specialist literature on the subject it offers explanations of why Irish nationalists have believed and acted as they have why their ideas and strategies have changed over time and what effect Irish nationalism has had in shaping modern Ireland It takes us from the Ulster Plantation to Home Rule from the Famine of 1847 to the Hunger Strikes of the 1970s from Parnell to Pearse from Wolfe Tone to Gerry Adams from the bitter struggle of the Civil War to the uneasy peace of the early twenty first century Is it imaginable that Ireland might as some have suggested be about to enter a post nationalist period Or will Irish nationalism remain a defining force on the island in future years a courageous and successful attempt to synthesise the entire story between two covers for the neophyte and for the exhausted specialist alike Tom Garvin Irish Times

Does Terrorism Work? Richard English, 2016 Does terrorism actually work And if so then how One of the world's leading experts on terrorism addresses these vital questions ones which have until now remained remarkably under scrutinized

Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to solving some of the most pressing problems of our time

ETA's Terrorist Campaign Rafael Leonisio, Fernando Molina, Diego Muro, 2016-07-28 This book analyses the rise and decline of the Basque terrorist group Euskadi Ta Askatasuna ETA Basque Homeland and Freedom ETA declared a unilateral ceasefire in November 2011 bringing to a close a campaign of political violence that started in the late 1960s By the beginning of the twenty first century the overwhelming majority of secession supporters agreed that an independent Basque homeland would be realised through ballots and not bullets Providing an inter disciplinary overview of radical Basque nationalism that pays special attention to the drivers for ETA's decline defeat and disbandment this book includes chapters by historians political scientists and sociologists who offer three important theoretical and empirical contributions to the literature on nationhood and security studies Firstly the book re assesses the military conflict that opposed ETA and the Spanish state by paying special attention to tactical and strategic considerations as well as the counter terrorist policy itself

Secondly it provides an original interpretation of the politics of fear which surrounded the process of victimization as well as assessing the extent to which the issue of violence led to the polarisation of citizens Thirdly the authors examine the historical narratives and rituals that contributed to the production and reproduction of identity binaries and memories of war Arguing that the defeat of ETA must be contextualised within the strategic evolution of Basque nationalism the declining resonance of the radical message and the effectiveness of the Spanish counter terrorist effort this book is essential reading for students and scholars working in the areas of European politics nationalism and terrorism studies Saturday Review of Literature ,1926 Chambers's Encyclopaedia: Catarrh to Dion ,1896 Chambers' Encyclopædia ,1893 Notes and Queries ,1900
