Early Modern Performance Beyond the Public Stage Amrita Sen, Jennifer Linhart Wood, 2025-09-18 The first major work to explore and analyse the popular extra theatrical performances in late medieval and Renaissance England This wider heterogeneous category of early modern performance included puppetry fireworks shows rope dancing minstrelsy performing animals games civic drama court masques university drama morris dances and ceremonial rituals all taking place in a variety of venues The volume reveals how these extra theatrical productions shaped urban and rural life and conveyed a sense of spectacular excess of exceeding traditional genres conventional modes of performance and the typical bounds of theatrical space The spaces where medieval and early modern drama flourished include pageant carts convents private homes universities waterways and the streets of both urban and rural communities Much like public theatres these performance spaces also played a pivotal role in articulating individual communal and national aspirations Spanning the medieval period to the late 17th century this volume engages with questions of spatiality gender religion transcontinental exchanges and colonialism presenting the latest research from scholars across the globe

The Dancing Lares and the Serpent in the Garden Harriet I. Flower, 2017-09-26 The most pervasive gods in ancient Rome had no traditional mythology attached to them nor was their worship organized by elites Throughout the Roman world neighborhood street corners farm boundaries and household hearths featured small shrines to the beloved lares a pair of cheerful little dancing gods These shrines were maintained primarily by ordinary Romans and often by slaves and freedmen for whom the lares cult provided a unique public leadership role In this comprehensive and richly illustrated book the first to focus on the lares Harriet Flower offers a strikingly original account of these gods and a new way of understanding the lived experience of everyday Roman religion Weaving together a wide range of evidence Flower sets forth a new interpretation of the much disputed nature of the lares She makes the case that they are not spirits of the dead as many have argued but rather benevolent protectors gods of place especially the household and the neighborhood and of travel She examines the rituals honoring the lares their cult sites and their iconography as well as the meaning of the snakes often depicted alongside lares in paintings of gardens She also looks at Compitalia a popular midwinter neighborhood festival in honor of the lares and describes how its politics played a key role in Rome's increasing violence in the 60s and 50s BC as well as in the efforts of Augustus to reach out to ordinary people living in the city's local neighborhoods A reconsideration of seemingly humble gods that were central to the religious world of the Romans this is also the first major account of the full range of lares worship in the homes neighborhoods and temples of ancient Rome Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions

Performing Arts in Transition Susanne Foellmer, Maria Katharina Schmidt, Cornelia Schmitz, 2018-12-07

Artists especially from dance and performance art as well as opera are involved to an increasing degree in the transfer between different media not only in their productions but also the events materials and documents that surround them At the same time the focus on that which remains has become central to any discussion of performance Performing Arts in Transition explores what takes place in the moments of transition from one medium to another and from the live performance to that which survives it Case studies from a broad range of interdisciplinary scholars address phenomena such as The dynamics of transfer between the performing and visual arts The philosophy and terminologies of transitioning between media Narratives and counternarratives in historical re-creations The status of chronology and the document in art scholarship This is an essential contribution to a vibrant multidisciplinary and international field of research emerging at the intersections of performance visual arts and media studies

Enjoying the Song of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Modern Dance 2006 Calendar

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the prepared word usually fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of Modern Dance 2006 Calendar a stunning literary value overflowing with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional journey, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase.
