Widening the World of International Relations Ersel Aydinli, Gonca Biltekin, 2018-07-11 Current international relations IR theories and approaches which are almost exclusively built in the West are alien to the non Western contexts that engender the most hard pressing problems of the world and ultimately unhelpful in understanding or addressing the needs surrounding these issues Our supposedly revolutionary new concepts and approaches remain largely insufficient in explaining what happens globally and in offering lessons for improvement This deficiency can only be addressed by building more relevant theories For theory to be relevant in accounting for contemporary international relations we argue it should not only apply to but also emanate from different corners of the current political universe In other words diversity and dialogue can only come about when periphery scholars do not just meta theorize but also theorize Aydinli and Biltekin propose a new form of theorizing through this collection of work one that effectively blends peripheral outlooks with theory production They call this form homegrown theorizing or original theorizing in the periphery about the periphery Arguing that disciplinary culture is oblivious to the diversity that might be achieved by theorizing based on indigenous ideas and or practices this book intends to highlight that potential showing diversity in the background of the authors because wherever one looks at the world from paints the picture that is being seen Therefore we bring together scholars from Eastern Europe to South Africa from Iran to

Japan to cover the extant diversity in ideas This work will be essential reading for all students and scholars concerned with the future of international relations theory The Frederick Douglass Papers Frederick Douglass, 2021-01-01 The journalism and personal writings of the great American abolitionist and reformer Frederick Douglass Launching the fourth series of The Frederick Douglass Papers designed to introduce readers to the broadest range of Frederick Douglass's writing this volume contains sixty seven pieces by Douglass including articles written for North American Review and the New York Independent as well as unpublished poems book transcriptions and travel diaries Spanning from the 1840s to the 1890s the documents reproduced in this volume demonstrate how Douglass's writing evolved over the five decades of his public life Where his writing for publication was concerned mostly with antislavery advocacy his unpublished works give readers a glimpse into his religious and personal reflections The writings are organized chronologically and accompanied by annotations offering biographical information as well as explanations of events mentioned and literary or historical allusions

Politics, Social Theory, Utopia and the World-System C. el-Ojeili, 2012-01-25 It is common to hear that we live in unique turbulent and crisis ridden times and this turbulence transformation and crisis are said to be deeply significant perhaps threatening for the human sciences Responding to such claims this book provides an accessible engagement with pressing contemporary topics such as violence social movements equality identity and democracy Foregrounding the imagination of possibilities utopia the mapping of the present theory and the transformation of the world system historical and global questions the book surveys central issues and paradigms in contemporary political sociology urging a recommitment to certain concepts and traditions for guidance in thinking and acting in the world The Utopian Constellation Chamsy el-Ojeili, 2019-11-18 This book examines the utopian dimension of contemporary social and political thought Arguing for a utopian optic for the human sciences el Ojeili claims that major transformations of the utopian constellation have occurred since the end of the twentieth century Following a survey of major utopian shifts in the modern period el Ojeili focuses on three spaces within today's utopian constellation At the liberal centre we see a splintering effect particularly after the global financial crisis of 2008 a contingent neo liberalism a neo Keynesian turn and a liberalism of fear At the far Right margin we see the consolidation of post fascism a combination of the future in the past elements of the post modern present and appeals to a novel future Finally at the far Left a new communism has emerged with novel positions on resistance maps of power and a contemporary variant of the Left's artistic critique The Utopian Constellation will be of interest to scholars and students across the human sciences with an interest in utopian studies ideological and discourse analysis the sociology of knowledge and the study of political culture Announcement for Autumn ... Lewis Institute of Arts and Sciences, 1929 English Literary Sexology H. Bauer, 2009-04-30 It is well known that much of our modern vocabulary of sex emerged within nineteenth century German sexology But how were the German ideas translated and transmitted into English culture This study provides an examination of the formation of sexual theory between the 1860s and 1930s and its migration across national and disciplinary boundaries A Syllabus in Modern European History from Charlemagne to the Present (800-1920) William Thomas Morgan, Prescott W. Townsend, 1920 History and the Present War Historical Association (Great Britain), 1914 Modern Europe, 1789-1914 Sydney Herbert, 2015-06-04 Excerpt from Modern Europe 1789 1914 The object of this book is to describe the main lines of development pursued in European politics since the beginning of the French Revolution in 1789 To do this on a really adequate scale would require a work of immensely greater dimensions and I have attempted no more than an introductory sketch One result of the Great War has been that a very large number of people is seeking for the first time seriously to understand what are called foreign affairs the relations in which England stands to other States and the causes which have helped to produce the present world convulsion It is a commonplace that the causes which bring states to hostility or friendship can only be understood when something is known of their respective histories of the manner of their growth and of the forces which have conditioned that growth I have tried therefore to produce a book which will assist such students as I have described to gain a foundation of knowledge upon which they can build by further studies The modesty of my purpose has conditioned the method pursued in writing the book I have consistently endeavoured to show how the internal histories of the European States have affected their external relations and how these in turn have influenced domestic development About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A Short History of Modern Europe D. M. Ketelbey, 1945 Proof, Evidence and Hate Crime Tshepo Bogosi Mosaka, 2025-07-18 Proof is the property of a disputed fact being established inferentially from an extant fact This book explicates the structural components of this phenomenon in the context of hate crimes across various jurisdictions around the world It departs from the orthodox conception of evidence and proof as being a general value neutral or non normative and epistemic subject and offers a relativistic conception of this area of law The core argument is that proof is both semantically and methodologically determined by three conditions of materiality process and probativity This argument is then justified by the context specific application of this relativistic theory of proof to hate crimes This theoretical application of proof is sustained throughout the book using multiple examples and illustrations of hate crimes around the world The discussion both at the level of proof and hate crimes while focusing on the grounds of race religion and ethnicity specifically is framed in jurisprudential cross jurisdictional and interdisciplinary terms The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of criminal law legal philosophy and procedural law Catalog United States Military Academy, 1924 Official Register of
