Rita Vas* Luis Santa Rita VAS, 1971 Portuguese Colonialism, Food, and Society in Goa Maria de Lourdes Brava da Costa, 2025-06-30 This interdisciplinary study examines the food history of colonial Goa between 1900 and 1961 foregrounding the centrality of food in the region's sociocultural economic and political life Drawing on archival materials periodicals in Konkani Portuguese and English oral history folklore and literary sources the book brings together perspectives from anthropology history and literary studies to analyse how food scarcity and abundance shaped everyday experiences and power structures Focusing on the staple crop of rice the work explores its symbolic and material significance in Goan society particularly through a close reading of O Signo da Ira by Orlando da Costa The study reveals how rice shortages empowered elite landlords entrenched social hierarchies and intensified the exploitation of mundkars tenant labourers and small cultivators by gaunkars village elites and the Comunidade agrarian institution It critiques the collusion between landlords and the colonial government in manipulating rice prices and maintaining systemic inequities through taxation and landholding practices By recovering the voices and struggles of the subaltern classes this book offers a nuanced and critical history of food in Goa during the late colonial period It addresses a significant gap in Goan historiography highlighting food as a vital lens through which to understand colonialism's enduring impact on everyday life

students live with the richness of thousands of years of Jewish history, culture and tradition. Teaching Jewish History tackles separately each of the key Jewish historical periods: Biblical, Rabbinic, Medieval, Early Modern, Enlightenment and Modern, as well as the North American Jewish experience. The authors shift focus away from rote memorization of dates, names and places and instead examine each period through the lens of core historical concepts: the Diaspora, Covenant, acculturation, assimilation and building community. History comes to life, helping students, whether elementary, middle or high school or adult, develop a stronger Jewish identity. Teaching Jewish History gives teachers the tools to understand and explain the meaning of key concepts, terms, names, places and events in each period of history. Identify and examine primary source documents and objects such as artifacts, diaries, sacred texts, photographs and artwork. Conduct meaningful discussions of how the core concepts of Jewish history recur in and are relevant to each historical period. Develop a variety of activities including field trips, mock trials, oral histories and role playing activities. Place historical events on a timeline. Use additional historical and educational resources such as books, articles, videos and Internet sites. Teaching Jewish History is an invaluable resource for the novice and the expert teacher of religious and day school children and for educators working with adults in synagogues, community centers and family education programs.
