Social Mobility In Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 Filippo and Caroline Osella anthropologists who spent three years in rural Kerala south India write about the modern search for upward social mobility the processes involved the ideologies that support or thwart it and what happens to the people involved They focus on the caste called Izhavas a group that in the mid 19th century consisted of a small land owning and titled elite and a large mass of landless and small tenants who were largely illiterate and considered untouchable and who eked out a living by manual labor and petty trade In the 20th century Izhavas pursued mobility in many social arenas both as a newly united caste and as families The work considers how successful the mobility has been and looks at the effects on their society of an ethos of progress Distributed by Stylus visible Yet from the late 17th century onwards many of Edinburgh's young men and women were drawn to India The city received back money and knowledge sculpture and paintings botanical specimens and even skulls Colonel James Skinner well known for establishing Skinner's Horse brought his sons to Edinburgh for their schooling Though Sir Walter Scott visited India only in his imagination and tried to stop his own sons going there he crafted a dashing India tale involving Tipu Sultan The money from India helped create Edinburgh's New Town Edinburgh's internationally renowned schools whose former pupils careers ranged from tea planters to Viceroy's and people who came to Edinburgh from India established Edinburgh's second women's medical college There are many such hidden stories of Edinburgh's India connections In this path breaking book they are brought to life using novel approaches to look at Edinburgh's past to see it as an imperial city a city for which India held a special place Focusing on the interactions between individual lives social networks and financial material cultural and social flows leading experts from Edinburgh's history provide fascinating detail on how Edinburgh's links to India were formed and transformed Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Kerala: the Development Experience Govinda Parayil, 2000-08-12 At a time when disillusion with neo liberal development nostrums is mounting alternative models of development are being revisited Kerala's 30 million people may not have experienced rapid growth in GDP per capita but they have for the past several decades achieved a remarkable social record in terms of adult literacy infant mortality life expectancy stabilising population growth and narrowing gender and spatial gaps What are the implications of the disjuncture between human development and economic growth What are the political social and cultural factors responsible for Kerala's success Does its human development record necessarily relate to sustainability in environmental terms How inclusive has the Kerala model been particularly for the fishing community and other socially marginalised groups Can the new people's campaign for decentralised development from below make Kerala's development experience more enduring What realistic view can be taken of its replicability elsewhere in India or further afield in the South These are among the most important questions explored in this timely reassessment An Ethical Critique of Land Reform J. Lawrence, 1998 Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies
