Modern Art Yesterday Tomorrow:

Readings in Latin American Modern Art Patrick Frank, 2008-10-01 This important and welcome volume is the first English language anthology of writings on Latin American modern art of the twentieth century The book includes some fifty seminal essays and documents including statements interviews and manifestoes by artists that encompass the broad diversity of this emerging field Many of these materials are difficult to access and some are translated here for the first time Together the selections explore the breadth and depth of Latin American modern art as well as its distinctive evolution apart from American and European art history Included in this collection are fascinating ideas and insights on the impact of the avant garde in the 1920s the Mexican mural movement Surrealism and other fantasy based styles modern architecture geometric and optical art concrete and neo concrete art and political conceptualism For students and scholars of Latin American art the volume offers an invaluable collection of primary and secondary sources Anywhere or Not at All Peter

Osborne, 2013-06-04 A new reading of the philosophy of contemporary art by the author of The Politics of Time Contemporary art is the object of inflated and widely divergent claims But what kind of discourse can open it up effectively to critical analysis Anywhere or Not at All is a major philosophical intervention in art theory that challenges the terms of established positions through a new approach at once philosophical historical social and art critical Developing the position that contemporary art is postconceptual art the book progresses through a dual series of conceptual constructions and interpretations of particular works to assess the art from a number of perspectives contemporaneity and its global context art against aesthetic the Romantic pre history of conceptual art the multiplicity of modernisms transcategoriality conceptual abstraction photographic ontology digitalization and the institutional and existential complexities of art space and art time Anywhere or Not at All maps out the conceptual space for an art that is both critical and contemporary in the era of global capitalism Winner of the 2014 Annual Book Prize of the Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present USA Art on the Edge Harold Rosenberg, 1983-06-15 Discusses the aesthetic orientations and creative directions of prominent contemporary artists as well as the nature and implications of the various modern movements Retrospection and Revision in Modern and Contemporary Art, Literature and Music Mette Gieskes, Mathilde Roza, 2024-01-03 This interdisciplinary book investigates the various ways in which North American and European modern and contemporary artists authors and musicians have returned to earlier works of their own engaging in inventive revivals and transformations of the past in the present The book is distinctive in its focus on such revisits as well as in the diversity of art forms under review in addition to visual art the book explores fiction poetry literary criticism film rock music and philosophy This scope together with the time span covered in the book from the 1850s to the twenty first century allows for a broad view on retrospection and revision The case studies presented here offer a multifaceted exploration of the widely different goals to which practitioners of the arts have made retrospection and revision functional against the background of cultural social political and personal forces

Manifestos and Polemics in Latin American Modern Art Patrick Frank, 2017-02-15 Bringing together sixty five primary documents vital to understanding the history of art in Latin America since 1900 Patrick Frank shows how modern art developed in Latin America in this important new work complementing his previous book Twentieth Century Art of Latin America Revised and Expanded Edition Besides autobiographies manifestos interviews and artists statements the editor has assembled material from videos blogs handwritten notes flyers lectures and even an after dinner speech As the title suggests many of the texts have a polemical or argumentative cast In these documents many of which appear in English for the first time the artists themselves describe what they hope to accomplish and what they see as obstacles Designed to show how modern art developed in Latin America the documents begin with early modern expressions in the early twentieth century then proceed through the avant garde of the 1920s the architectural boom of midcentury and the Cold War years and finally conclude with the postmodern artists in the new century

Nazi Culture George Lachmann Mosse, 2003 George L Mosse's extensive analysis of Nazi culture ground breaking upon its original publication in 1966 is now offered to readers of a new generation Selections from newspapers novellas plays and diaries as well as the public pronouncements of Nazi leaders churchmen and professors describe National Socialism in practice and explore what it meant for the average German

Modern in the Middle Susan Benjamin, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2020-09-01 The first survey of the classic twentieth century houses that defined American Midwestern modernism Famed as the birthplace of that icon of twentieth century architecture the skyscraper Chicago also cultivated a more humble but no less consequential form of modernism the private residence Modern in the Middle Chicago Houses 1929-75 explores the substantial yet overlooked role that Chicago and its suburbs played in the development of the modern single family house in the twentieth century In a city often associated with the outsize reputations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe the examples discussed in this generously illustrated book expand and enrich the story of the region's built environment Authors Susan Benjamin and Michelangelo Sabatino survey dozens of influential houses by architects whose contributions are ripe for reappraisal such as Paul Schweikher Harry Weese Keck Keck and William Pereira From the bold early example of the Battledock House by Henry Dubin 1930 to John Vinci and Lawrence Kenny's gem the Freeark House 1975 the generation spanning residences discussed here reveal how these architects contended with climate and natural setting while negotiating the dominant influences of Wright and Mies They also reveal how residential clients typically middle class professionals progressive in their thinking helped to trailblaze modern architecture in America Though reflecting different approaches to site space structure and materials the examples in Modern in the Middle reveal an abundance of astonishing houses that have never been collected into one study until now

What was Contemporary Art? Richard Meyer, 2013 Contemporary art in the early twenty first century is often discussed as though it were a radically new phenomenon unmoored from history Yet all works of art were once contemporary to the artist and culture that produced them In What Was Contemporary Art Richard Meyer reclaims the contemporary from historical amnesia exploring episodes in the study exhibition and reception of early twentieth century art and visual culture

Imagining the Present Richard Kalina, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty nine of Lawrence Alloway's most influential essays in one volume this fascinating collection provides valuable perspectives on the art and visual culture of the second half of the twentieth century Lawrence Alloway ranks among the most important critics of his time and his contributions to the spirited and contentious dialogue of his era make for fascinating reading These twenty nine provocative essays from 1956 to 1980 from the man who invented the term pop art bring art film iconography cybernetics and culture together for analysis and investigation and do indeed examine the context content and role of the critic in art and visual culture Featuring a critical commentary by Richard Kalina and preface by series editor Saul Ostrow Imagining the Present will be an enthralling read for all art and visual culture students
