Appropriating Antiquity for Modern Chinese Painting Chia-Ling Yang, 2023-02-09 The pursuit of antiquity was important for scholarly artists in constructing their knowledge of history and cultural identity in late imperial China By examining versatile trends within paintings in modern China this book questions the extent to which historical relics have been used to represent the ethnic identity of modern Chinese art In doing so this book asks did the antiquarian movements ultimately serve as a deliberate tool for re writing Chinese art history in modern China In searching for the public meaning of inventive private collecting activity Appropriating Antiquity in Modern Chinese Painting draws on various modes of artistic creation to address how the use of antiquities in early 20th century Chinese art both produced and reinforced the imaginative links between ancient civilization and modern lives in the late Qing dynasty Further exploring how these social and cultural transformations were related to the artistic exchanges happening at the time between China Japan and the West the book successfully analyses how modernity was translated and appropriated at the turn of the 20th century throughout Asia and further afield

Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr, 2024-05-07 It is well known that the Chinese church and therefore Chinese theology has been divided in the People's Republic of China into registered and unregistered churches and that while the state approved church offers theologies that align with the nation's socialist values the unregistered or house churches have tended toward an evangelical theology that is now divaricating with the resurgence of denominations in China What is less well known is that there has been a vibrant third field of Chinese theology Sino Christian theology a contested academic discourse that makes no claims to be a confessional theology This theology fostered by academics in secular Chinese universities developed in the 1990s and has grown and diversified with the increasing number of scholars researching Christianity in China This volume offers essays on the message of Chinese Christian art for example alongside textual and Christological studies The phenomenon of Sino Christian theology along with debates on its right to exist if not authored by professing Christians overlaps with broader debates on the nature of a Chinese theology and its unifying features The second part of the volume draws together nine essays on theological concerns in the Chinese diaspora These range from the nature of diasporic experience itself to studies of individual writers and from fundamentalist beliefs in Singapore to a queer theology academy in Hong Kong Although Hong Kong is part of mainland China given its history and the one country two systems policy still in place several essays on Hong Kong theologians are included here among diasporic writings Three essays focusing on Taiwanese subjects include reflections on the role of Christian philosophy in the legal thought of John C H Wu a reassessment of homeland theology in light of the nationalist resurgence and the creative theology of Yi based on the Book of Changes Yijing

The Arts of China, Fifth Edition, Revised and Expanded Michael Sullivan, 2008 From the Neolithic to the avant garde and through all the brilliant centuries in between Michael Sullivan's introduction to Chinese art history is the classic in its field unsurpassed in its clarity balance and sure grasp of the subject Whether for the classroom student or the casual reader its remarkable range and elegant style make this book a wonderful way for anyone to begin learning about Chinese art Jerome Silbergeld Princeton University I have used Sullivan s Arts of China in my class for thirty years No other historian of Chinese art today commands such a wide range of knowledge as Michael Sullivan Richard Barnhart Yale University editor of Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting After more than forty years since its first publication Michael Sullivan s Arts of China now in its fifth edition remains the most concise yet most comprehensive introduction to the history of Chinese art to students and the public Wu Hung Harrie A Vanderstappen Distinguished Service Professor University of Chicago Michael Sullivan is the acknowledged dean of modern Chinese art studies and any work bearing his name guarantees both a high level of quality and a wide readership Maxwell K Hearn Metropolitan Museum of Art

Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China s background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China s rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan s fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China s modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan s work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

The Modernization of Chinese Art Jane Zheng, 2016-03-29 First academic study on modernity at the Shanghai Art College The Shanghai Art College was one of the most important art schools in Republican China This is the first academic study written on the early history of the College It makes a major contribution to the history of art education in China Shanghai in particular The book presents a new approach to how people understand the modernization of Chinese art and the significance and consequences of modernity in the Shanghai art world of the period 1913-1937 The author proposes new theoretical models to explain the interactions between multiple levels of social structures and artists with a special emphasis on the role of art education institutions in transforming artists artworks and the development of artistic fields Presenting unique historical images heretofore hidden in the archives of the College the book

Fogel, 2013 The modern histories of China and Japan are inexorably intertwined Their relationship is perhaps most obvious in the fields of political economic and military history but it is no less true in cultural and art history Yet the traffic in artistic practices and practitioners between China and Japan remains an understudied field In this volume an international group of scholars investigates Japan s impact on Chinese art from the mid nineteenth century through the 1930s Individual essays address a range of perspectives including the work of individual Chinese and Japanese painters calligraphers and sculptors as well as artistic associations international exhibitions the collotype production or artwork and the emergence of a modern canon Li Kung-lin's Classic of Filial Piety Richard M. Barnhart, Robert E. Harrist, Huiliang Zhu, 1993 The subject is a 15 5 foot handscroll painted by Li Kung lin the preeminent figure painter of 11th century China illustrating a work that dates to between 350 and 200 B C a dialog between Confucius and a disciple on the meaning and application of filial piety in the affairs of the individual and of the state Barnhart s art history Yale elucidation is accompanied by contributed chapters on the calligraphy of the work and on the conservation and remounting of the scroll Generously illustrated 9 25x12 25 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1927 Middle Class Shanghai Cheng Li, 2021-05-11 The United States may be headed toward a disastrous conflict with China unless Washington updates its understanding of contemporary Chinese society After four decades of engagement the United States and China now appear to be locked on a collision course that has already fomented a trade war seems likely to produce a new cold war and could even result in dangerous military conflict The current deterioration of the bilateral relationship is the culmination of years of disputes disillusionment disappointment and distrust between the two countries Washington has legitimate concerns about Beijing's excessive domestic political control and aggressive foreign policy stances just as Chinese leaders believe the United States still has futile designs on blocking their country's inevitable rise to great power status Cheng Li's Middle Class Shanghai argues that American policymakers must not lose sight of the expansive dynamism and diversity in present day China The caricature of the PRC as a monolithic Communist apparatus set on exporting its ideology and development model is simplistic and misguided Drawing on empirical research in the realms of higher education avant garde art architecture and law this unique study highlights the strong constructive impact of bilateral exchanges Combining eclectic human stories with striking new data analysis this book addresses the possibility that the development of China's class structure and cosmopolitan culture exemplified and led by Shanghai could provide a force for reshaping U S China engagement Both countries should build upon the deep cultural and educational exchanges that have bound them together for decades The author concludes that U S policymakers should neither underestimate the role and strength of the Chinese middle class nor ostracize or alienate this force with policies that push it toward jingoistic nationalism to the detriment of both countries and the global community With its unique focus this book will enlighten policymakers scholars business leaders and anyone interested in China and its increasingly fraught relations with the United States

Chinese Art Maxwell K.

Hearn, Judith G. Smith, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001 China's entry into the modern era was shaped by unprecedented internal turmoil and external pressures which brought a forceful end to two millennia of imperial rule and cultural insularity. The essays in this volume offer a variety of perspectives on the impact of the West on indigenous literature, architecture, painting and calligraphy during this period ca. 1860-1980. This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Chinese Paintings from the Robert H. Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the museum from 30th January to 19th August 2001. Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery. The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization. The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book. Contemporary art in China takes place in a post-socialist, post-Mao context and at the same time a post-traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization. It also tries to find its position in the post-colonial globalized arena. This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon. As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context. Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures. Her research focuses on Eurocentrism, Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art. Apparently marking the burial of a crane, the large inscription datable to 514 CE was once carved into a cliff on Jiaoshan Island in the Yangzi River. Since the discovery of its ruins in the early eleventh century it has fascinated generations of scholars and calligraphers and been enshrined as a calligraphic masterpiece. Nonetheless, skeptics have questioned the quality of the calligraphy and complained that its fragmentary state and worn characters make assessment of its artistic value impossible. Moreover, historians have trouble fitting it into the storyline of Chinese calligraphy. Such controversies illuminate moments of discontinuity in the history of the art form that complicate the mechanism of canon formation. In this volume Lei Xue examines previous epigraphic studies and recent archaeological finds to consider the origin of the work in the sixth century and then trace its history after the eleventh century. He suggests that formation of the canon of Chinese calligraphy over two millennia has been an ongoing process embedded in the sociopolitical realities of particular historical moments. This biography of the stone monument Eulogy for Burying a Crane reveals Chinese calligraphy to be a contested field of cultural and political forces that have constantly reconfigured the practice theory and historiography of this unique art form Art History Publication Initiative A McLellan Book      Philosophy of Chinese Art Zhu Zhirong,2021-09-16 This title provides a systematic examination of the philosophy of Chinese art exploring the peculiarity of artistic forms and distinctive conceptions and artistic principles of Chinese art which are grounded in the life awareness of the ancient Chinese and interconnect with the Chinese philosophy of life Synthesizing Chinese theories of art with Western philosophical systems the book is organized into five parts 1 the subject the actor who creates appreciates and criticizes artistic works 2 ontological aspects that is the artwork per se and the dynamic process of creation 3 aesthetic traits the organic whole constituted by rhythm meter the principle of harmony and space time awareness 4 artistic representation which is manifested in the rhythm of vital energy momentum of genre vigour of style and taste and inclination and 5 the evolution of Chinese art Based on this structural thread the author looks into the interwoven relationship between the philosophy of Chinese art and ancient Chinese thought in terms of the spirit of life nature human relations and ontological awareness of human centredness The book will appeal to scholars students and general readers interested in aesthetics art theory art philosophy Chinese art and ancient Chinese culture      Paris and the Art of Transposition Angie Chau,2023-12-11 A brief stay in France was for many Chinese workers and Chinese Communist Party leaders a vital stepping stone for their careers during the cultural and political push to modernize China after World War I For the Chinese students who went abroad specifically to study Western art and literature these trips meant something else entirely Set against the backdrop of interwar Paris Paris and the Art of Transposition uncovers previously marginalized archives to reveal the artistic strategies employed by Chinese artists and writers in the early twentieth century transnational imaginary and to explain why Paris played such a central role in the global reception of modern Chinese literature and art While previous studies of Chinese modernism have focused on how Western modernist aesthetics were adapted or translated to the Chinese context Angie Chau does the opposite by turning to Paris in the Chinese imaginary and discussing the literary and visual artwork of five artists who moved between France and China the painter Chang Yu the poet Li Jinfa the art critic Fu Lei the painter Pan Yuliang and the writer Xu Xu Chau draws the idea of transposition from music theory where it refers to shifting music from one key or clef to another or to adapting a song originally composed for one instrument to be played by another Transposing transposition to the study of art and literature Chau uses the term to describe a fluid and strategic art practice that depends on the tension between foreign and familiar new and old celebrating both novelty and recognition a process that occurs when a text gets placed into a fresh context      SALE OF FINE MODERN CHINESE PAINTINGS ,      A Companion to Asian Art and Architecture Rebecca M.
