Modern Cosmology And The Quran From A Scientific Perspective:

Modern Cosmology and the Quran Taiseer Zaid Kailani, 2005 This Book Modern Cosmology and the Quran has among other things three main objectives namely 1 To prove the existence of God the Creator of the whole Universe 2 To confirm the Authenticity of the Quran and 3 the need for religious harmony between Monotheistic Religions The Quran has mentioned many signs in Nature which point to the existence of God and His Power God insistently appeals to people to travel in the Earth and Heavens to seek and know His creative power and to see how He has created every thing in the physical Universe accurately and with proportion to look into Nature and examine the life forms and their activities to contemplate upon the celestial bodies and the system that governs them and to examine the scientific signs and allusions revealed in the Quran The principal aim is to incite the human being to reflect on the works of the creation as evidence of the Great Creator of the Universe and to ensure that the scientific phenomena revealed in the Quran fourteen centuries ago are perfectly in conformity with modern knowledge When people perceive this they come to know more deeply the beauty and splendour of the Creator's system and the infinitude of His Might Regarding this fact God says in the Quran Travel in the land and see how God originated the creation Surah 29 verse 20 Verily in the Heavens and the Earth are signs for those who believe Surah 45 verse 3 It is the work of God Who perfected all things Surah 3 verse 190 As we know that the Quran was revealed to Muhammad Who was an illiterate man and who was living in an environment dominated by ignorance If he was the author of the Quran how could he have written facts about Cosmology in the 7th century A D that today are shown to be consistent with modern science Moreover if somebody else had written it for him how could he then pronounce truths of a scientific nature that no other human being could possibly have developed at the time and all this without once making the slightest error in his pronouncements on the subject Apart from the astronomical evidences revealed in the Quran and which are proved to be scientific facts nowadays God has challenged disbelievers to produce a single chapter like chapters of the Quran in their beauty eloquence and wise legislation Ever since its revelation fourteen centuries ago no one has been able to meet this challenge then or today though at that time of revelation the Arabs were very eloquent people who used to compose beautiful and excellent poetry in Arabic With respect to this God says in the Quran And if you are in doubt what we have revealed to our worshiper then produce a chapter like it and call your witnesses besides God if you are truthful And if you do not do it and you can never do it then fear the Hell Surah 21 verse 23 25 The third main objective of this Book is the need for religious harmony between Monotheistic Religions namely Judaism Christianity and Islam since three of them have more or less the same basic Divine Doctrines and Guidance that lead human kind to the right path and because their adherents believe in the same God and worship Him each according to the ritual activities they believe in therefore no real reason why religious harmony does not exist between these religions Such coexistence constitutes the bedrock of Justice and World Peace nowadays In this connection God says in the Quran Say O people of the Book Jews and Christians come to a word that is just between us and you that we will worship none but God Surah 3 verse 64 It is obvious that this Quranic verse is an invitation to inter religious dialogue in order to find a mutual basis for peaceful co existence and harmony between religions

Modern Cosmology and the Quran , Cosmology and Architecture in Premodern Islam Samer Akkach,2012-02-01 This fascinating interdisciplinary study reveals connections between architecture cosmology and mysticism Samer Akkach demonstrates how space ordering in premodern Islamic architecture reflects the transcendental and the sublime The book features many new translations a number from unpublished sources and several illustrations Referencing a wide range of mystical texts and with a special focus on the works of the great Sufi master Ibn Arabi Akkach introduces a notion of spatial sensibility that is shaped by religious conceptions of time and space Religious beliefs about the cosmos geography the human body and constructed forms are all underpinned by a consistent spatial sensibility anchored in medieval geocentrism Within this geometrically defined and ordered universe nothing stands in isolation or ambiguity everything is interrelated and carefully positioned in an intricate hierarchy Through detailed mapping of this intricate order the book shows the significance of this mode of seeing the world for those who lived in the premodern Islamic era and how cosmological ideas became manifest in the buildings and spaces of their everyday lives This is a highly original work that provides important insights on Islamic aesthetics and culture on the history of architecture and on the relationship of art and religion creativity and spirituality

Science and Religions in America Greg Cootsona,2022-12-30 What is religion What is science How do they interact with each other Science and Religions in America

A New Look offers a cutting edge overview of the diverse range of religious traditions and their complex and fascinating interaction with science. Pluralistic in scope, the book is different from traditional Christian and or monotheistic approaches to studying the rich interplay of religion and science in multi religious American culture. Featuring interviews with specialists in the field, Greg Cootsona draws on their insights to provide a comprehensive, accessible and engaging introduction to the challenging interrelationship of religion and science. Each chapter focuses on a different religion within the United States, covering Buddhism, Christianity, Nature Religions, Islam, Judaism, Hinduism, and the Spiritual but Not Religious (SBNR). Global religious traditions and their inextricable relationship with science and technology are examined in an accessible and interactive format. With lightning round Q & As, contributions from leading thinkers, and suggestions for further reading, this book primes undergraduate students for studying the interchange of science and religions in the plural, and is an exciting new resource for those interested in these topics in contemporary America.

Science, Religion and Society Arri Eisen, Gary Laderman, 2015-03-04. This unique encyclopedia explores the historical and contemporary controversies between science and religion. It is designed to offer multicultural and multi religious views and provide wide ranging perspectives. Science, Religion and Society covers all aspects of the religion and science dichotomy, from humanities to social sciences to natural sciences, and includes articles by theologians, religion scholars, physicians, scientists, historians, and psychologists among others. The first section, General Overviews, contains essays that provide a road map for exploring the major challenges and questions in science and religion. Following this, the Historical Perspectives section grounds these major questions in the past and demonstrates how they have developed into the six broad areas of contemporary research and discussion that follow. These sections: Creation, the Cosmos, and Origins of the Universe; Ecology, Evolution, and the Natural World; Consciousness, Mind, and the Brain; Healers and Healing; Dying and Death; and Genetics and Religion, organize the questions and research that are the foundation of the enormous interest and controversy in science and religion today.

Science and Religion in Search of Cosmic Purpose John F. Haught, 2000-03-03. Many scientists today think of the universe as essentially purposeless. Likewise, modern and postmodern philosophers have often been suspicious of any religious claims that the natural world embodies and eternal meaning or teleology. Not all scientific thinkers subscribe to this cosmic pessimism, however, and some would even argue that contemporary knowledge is consistent with a religious sense of cosmic purpose. This stimulating book offers candid reflections on the question of cosmic purpose, written both by prominent scientists and by scholars representing the world's religious traditions. Examining the issue from a wide variety of perspectives, this is the only current book to deal with cosmic purpose from an interreligious and interdisciplinary perspective. Here, scientists such as physicist Andrei Linde and biologist Francisco Ayala come face to face with Islamic scholar Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Hindu philosopher Anindita Niyogi, and others. They examine such perplexing issues as the possible existence of multiple universes and the implications of seemingly purposive features in life. The contributions address the question of whether a religiously based notion of a purposeful cosmos is consistent with the latest scientific understanding of nature and whether theology can affirm the presence of divine action without contradicting science These essays will challenge readers to ponder their own place in the cosmos as they seek to interpret the visions of the world's great spiritual traditions in the light of natural science Allah's Universe Iftikhar Uddin Hyder, 2025-06-16 Allah's Universe Why God is the Only Explanation for Our Existence is intended to demonstrate that the universe was almost certainly created by God This book is intended for individuals who in order to understand the universe and everything it encapsulates rely on science but in understanding the universe they do not irrationally dismiss the existence of God and His infinite creative power Allah's Universe shows that the universe has been created with laws of nature which are fine tuned to support life as we know it even if intelligent life in it may have an ephemeral existence as compared to its age There are simply too many improbable coincidences which make the universe conducive for life to exist If some of the laws of nature were even slightly different life would not exist This book also attempts to briefly explore the greatest miracle in the universe life About the Author Iftikhar Uddin Hyder is a cosmology aficionado He has published articles on different topics including cosmology and finance He works as a finance professional and lives in New Jersey His professional publications on finance have been cited by researchers at academic institutions and regulatory bodies in North America South America Europe and Asia Science & Technology in the Islamic World

Nested Ecology Edward T. Wimberley, 2009-05-29 Nested Ecology provides a pragmatic and functional approach to realizing a sustainable environmental ethic Edward T Wimberley asserts that a practical ecological ethic must focus on human decision making within the context of larger social and environmental systems Think of a set of mixing bowls in which smaller bowls sit within larger ones Wimberley sees the world in much the same way with personal ecologies embedded in social ecologies that in turn are nested within natural ecologies Wimberley urges a complete reconceptualization of the human place in the ecological hierarchy Going beyond the physical realms in which people live and interact he extends the concept of ecology to spirituality and the ecology of the unknown In doing so Wimberley defines a new environmental philosophy and a new ecological ethic

Religion and the Order of Nature Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1996 Nasr argues that the current ecological crisis has been exacerbated by the reductionist view of nature that has been advanced by modern secular science What is needed he believes is the recovery of the belief that nature is sacred

Religious Pluralism in Christian and Islamic Philosophy Adnan Aslan, 2013-01-11 The philosophy of religion and theology are related to the culture in which they have developed These disciplines provide a source of values and vision to the cultures of which they are part while at the same time they are delimited and defined by their cultures This book compares the ideas of two contemporary philosophers John Hick and Seyyed Hossein Nasr on the issues of religion religions the concept of the ultimate reality and the notion of sacred knowledge On a broader level it compares two world views the one formed by Western Christian culture which is religious in intention but secular in essence the other Islamic formed through the assimilation of traditional wisdom which is turned against the norms of secular culture and is thus religious both in intention and essence
