Contemporary Japanese Culture Fuminobu Murakami, 2006-02-01 Using the Euro American theoretical framework of postmodernism feminism and post colonialism this book analyses the fictional and critical work of four contemporary Japanese writers Murakami Haruki Yoshimoto Banana Yoshimoto Takaaki and Karatani Kojin In addition the author reconsiders this Euro American theory by looking back on it from the perspective of Japanese literary work Presenting outstanding analysis of Japanese intellectuals and writers who have received little attention in the West the book also includes an extensive and comprehensive bibliography making it essential reading for those studying Japanese literature Japanese studies and Japanese thinkers The Ancient Dancer in the Modern World Fiona Macintosh, 2012-07-05 When the eighteenth century choreographer Jean Georges Noverre sought to develop what is now known as modern ballet he turned to ancient pantomime as his source of inspiration and when Isadora Duncan and her contemporaries looked for alternatives to the strictures of classical ballet they looked to ancient Greek vases for models for what they termed natural movement This is the first book to examine systematically the long history of the impact of ideas about ancient Greek and Roman dance on modern theatrical and choreographic practices With contributions from eminent classical scholars dance historians theatre specialists modern literary critics and art historians as well as from contemporary practitioners it offers a very wide conspectus on an under explored but central aspect of classical reception dance and theatre history and the history of ideas

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism
