Modern European Culture Consciousness 1870 1980:

Modern European Culture and Consciousness, 1870-1980 Paul Monaco, 1983-01-01 On both personal and public levels the past century has brought Western Europeans some of the most devastating episodes of human history Paul Monaco identifies the major modes of consciousness that Europeans have developed as ways of interpreting their experiences Europe appears to many Americans as an aging dowager with a grand past but little future Yet beyond the stereotype lies the complex reality The U S and the Soviet Union both failed to carry on the ideological and cultural traditions of the Western world to which they fell heir at the end of World War II By contrast Western Europe quickly recovered its cultural equilibrium Modern European Culture and Consciousness shows how Europe's amazing recovery took place Monaco argues that the sensibility now being forged in Europe will provide the guide to the twenty first century He illustrates this thesis by analysis of novels plays and especially motion pictures which have gradually supplanted novels

Modern European Culture and Consciousness, 1870-1980 Paul Monaco, 1983-06-30 On both personal and public levels the past century has brought Western Europeans some of the most devastating episodes of human history Paul Monaco identifies the major modes of consciousness that Europeans have developed as ways of interpreting their experiences Europe appears to many Americans as an aging dowager with a grand past but little future Yet beyond the stereotype lies the complex reality The U S and the Soviet Union both failed to carry on the ideological and cultural traditions of the Western world to which they fell heir at the end of World War II By contrast Western Europe quickly recovered its cultural equilibrium Modern European Culture and Consciousness shows how Europe's amazing recovery took place Monaco argues that the sensibility now being forged in Europe will provide the guide to the twenty first century He illustrates this thesis by analysis of novels plays and especially motion pictures which have gradually supplanted novels

Towards a History of Consciousness Władysław P. Marciniak, 2006 Towards a History of Consciousness Space Time and Death offers a cogent and compelling discussion of the neglected topic of the history of consciousness An analysis of our postmodern ontology reveals deep but neglected roots What are those roots and how did they grow Is there a self without consciousness What is the relation of the self to the individual Does the recognition of death contribute to the growth of consciousness As a survey of western history this work pushes the boundaries of the understanding of consciousness in intriguing and sometimes provocative directions This integrative study is intended for the serious curious student and thinker Understanding Society, Culture, and Television Paul Monaco, 2000-09-30 What is the real nature of television and what is its place in contemporary society and culture In a provocative rethinking of the medium and its ensuing effects this book argues that we have misunderstood television and have thus contributed to a distorted view of art and culture in the 20th century During the final quarter of this century both in academic and popular circles we have spread wildly exaggerated claims about television's undermining of human consciousness and behavior Television has become a scapegoat for all sorts of societal and cultural ills The arguments presented by many researchers on behalf of the ill effects of TV are fundamentally weak and flawed On the eve of the 21st century the claimed distinctions between high art and popular culture have become a final hopeless repository of pedantry Television can be understood only by viewing it as an art form and measuring its role in society and culture in concert with the first principles of human reason and liberty

Philosophy and Politics of Czech Dissidence from Patočka to Havel Aviezer Tucker, 2000 A critical study of the philosophy and political practice of the Czech dissident movement Charter 77 Aviezer Tucker examines how the political philosophy of Jan Patočka 1907 1977 founder of Charter 77 influenced the thinking and political leadership of Vaclav Havel as dissident and president Presents the first serious treatment of Havel as philosopher and Patočka as a political thinker Through the Charter 77 dissident movement in Czechoslovakia opponents of communism based their civil struggle for human rights on philosophic foundations and members of the Charter 77 later led the Velvet Revolution After Patočka's self sacrifice in 1977 Vaclav Havel emerged a strong philosophical and political force and he continued to apply Patočka's philosophy in order to understand the human condition under late communism and the meaning of dissidence However the political philosophical orientation of the Charter 77 movement failed to provide President Havel with an adequate basis for comprehending and responding to the extraordinary political and economic problems of the postcommunist period In his discussion of Havel's presidency and the eventual corruption of the Velvet Revolution Tucker demonstrates that the weaknesses in Charter 77 member's understanding of modernity which did not matter while they were dissidents seriously harmed their ability to function in a modern democratic system Within this context Tucker also examines Havel's recent attempt to topple the democratic but corrupt government in 1997 1998 The Philosophy and Politics of Czech Dissidence from Patočka to Havel will be of interest to students of philosophy and politics scholars and students of Slavic studies and historians as well as anyone fascinated by the nature of dissidence compassion Katharina Sch tz Zell 1498 1562 was an outspoken religious reformer in sixteenth century Germany who campaigned for the right of clergy to marry and the responsibility of lay people women as well as men to proclaim the Gospel As one of the first and most daring models of the pastor s wife in the Protestant Reformation Sch tz Zell demonstrated that she could be an equal partner in marriage she was for many years a respected if unofficial mother of the established church of Strasbourg in an age when ecclesiastical leadership was dominated by men Though a commoner Sch tz Zell participated actively in public life and wrote prolifically including letters of consolation devotional writings biblical meditations catechetical instructions a sermon and lengthy polemical exchanges with male theologians The complete translations of her extant publications except for her longest are collected here in Church Mother offering modern readers a rare opportunity to understand the important work of women in the formation of the early Protestant church Meditations on the Incarnation, Passion, and Death of Jesus Christ Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg, 2010-04-15 Read by Protestants and Catholics alike Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg 1633 94 was the foremost German woman poet and writer in the seventeenth century German speaking world Privileged by her social station and education she published a large body of religious writings under her own name to a reception unequaled by any other German woman during her lifetime But once the popularity of devotional writings as a genre waned Catharina s works went largely unread until scholars devoted renewed attention to them in the twentieth century For this volume Lynne Tatlock translates for the first time into English three of the thirty six meditations restoring Catharina to her rightful place in print These meditations foreground women in the life of Jesus Christ including accounts of women at the Incarnation and the Tomb and in Scripture in general Tatlock s selections give the modern reader a sense of the structure and nature of Catharina s devotional writings highlighting the alternative they offer to the male centered view of early modern literary and cultural production during her day and redefining the role of women in Christian history The Complete Poems Gaspara Stampa, 2010-10-15 Gaspara Stampa 1523 1554 is one of the finest female poets ever to write in Italian Although she was lauded for her singing during her lifetime her success and critical reputation as a poet emerged only after her verse was republished in the early eighteenth century Her poetry runs the gamut of human emotion ranging from ecstasy over a consummated love affair to despair at its end While these tormented works and their multiple male addressees have led to speculation that Stampa may have been one of Venice s famous courtesans they can also be read as a rebuttal of typical assumptions about women s roles Championed by Rainer Maria Rilke among others she has more recently been celebrated by feminist scholars for her distinctive and original voice and her challenge to convention The first complete translation of Stampa into English this volume collects all of her passionate and lyrical verse It is also the first modern critical edition of her poems and in restoring the original sequence of the 1554 text it allows readers the opportunity to encounter Stampa as she intended Jane Tylus renders Stampa s verse in precise and graceful English translations allowing a new generation of students and scholars of poetry Renaissance literature and music history to rediscover this incipiently modern Italian poet Enrico; or, Byzantium Conquered Lucrezia Marinella, 2009-09-15 Lucrezia Marinella 1571-1653 is by all accounts a phenomenon in early modernity a woman who wrote and published in many genres whose fame shone brightly within and outside her native Venice and whose voice is simultaneously original and reflective of her time and culture In Enrico or Byzantium Conquered one of the most ambitious and rewarding of her numerous narrative works Marinella demonstrates her skill as an epic poet Now available for the first time in English translation Enrico retells the story of the conquest of Byzantium in the Fourth Crusade 1202-04 Marinella intersperses historical events in her account of the invasion with numerous invented episodes drawing on the rich imaginative legacy of the chivalric romance Fast moving colorful and narrated with the zest that characterizes Marinella's other works this poem is a great example of a woman engaging critically with a quintessentially masculine form and subject matter writing in a genre in which the work of women poets was typically shunned

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
