implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barret Cabrera Infante Carpentier Cortázar Fuentes Gallegos García Márquez Roa Bastos and Rodó are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Cabrera Infante's Meta End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text
