Bruns, 2001 Gerald Bruns's ground breaking analysis compares two contrasting functions of language the hermetic where language is self contained and self referencing and the Orphic which originates from a belief in the mythical unity of word and being Bruns lucidly depicts the distinctions and convergences between these two lines of thought by examining the works of Mallarmé Flaubert Joyce Beckett and others Modern Indonesian Literature, Volume 2 A. Teeuw, 2023-11-27 Rhythm in Modern Poetry Eva Lilja, 2023-11-02 A pioneering work in cognitive versification studies scrutinizing the rhythmical means of free verse Investigating a previously neglected area of study Rhythm in Modern Poetry establishes a foundation for cognitive versification studies with a focus on the modernist free verse Following in the tradition of cognitive poetics by Reuven Tsur Richard Cureton and Derek Attridge every chapter investigates the rhythms of one modern poem by Lawrence Ferlinghetti Sylvia Plath and others and engages each element in the broader interpretation of the poem in question In her examination of modernist poetry in English and other Germanic languages Eva Lilja expands her analysis to discuss both the Ancient Greek and Norse origins of rhythm in free verse and the intermedia intersection comparing poetic rhythm with rhythm in pictures sculptures and dance Rhythm in Modern Poetry thus expands the field of cognitive versification studies while also engaging readers writ large interested in how rhythm works in the aesthetic field Modern Poetry Louis MacNeice, 1968 Aberration in Modern Poetry Lucy Collins, Stephen Matterson, 2011-12-22 This critical work considers the role played by elements that might be considered aberrational in a poet's oeuvre With an introductory essay exploring the nature of aberration these fourteen contributions investigate the work of major 20th century poets from the U S Britain Ireland Australia and New Zealand Aberration is considered from the standpoint of both the artist and the audience prompting discussion on a range of important issues including the formation of the canon Each essay discusses the status of the aberrant work and the ways in which it challenges enlarges or supports the overall perception of the poet Modern Poetry and the Tradition Cleanth Brooks, 2018-02-01 This study presents the revolutionary thesis that English poetry and poetic theory were deflected from their richest line of development by the scientific rationalism that came with Hobbes and has continued its restrictive influence to the present day when such poets as Yeats and Eliot have begun the reestablishment of the earlier line of development Originally published in 1939 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of

Skepticism and Impersonality in Modern Poetry V. Joshua

Adams,2025-06-12 Modern literature is often described in terms of its impersonality What is the significance of this fact In Skepticism and Impersonality V Joshua Adams follows the history of impersonality in modern poetry from Mallarm and Eliot through to the present engaging with work by major poets and critics but also contemporary philosophers Rather than seeing impersonality exclusively as a literary historical phenomenon Adams argues that we should understand it as an attempt to address skeptical problems arising from the limitations of first person experience Defending impersonality as a response to skeptical problems including doubts about the publicity of our experiences our knowledge of other minds the capacity of our language to describe the world the relationship between mind and body and the fictionality and continuity of our sense of self Adams analyzes what he calls experiments in impersonality as means of working through skeptical doubt The writers discussed transform this doubt into art whilst also ironizing it as corrosive and self defeating Ultimately this leads Adams to reinterpret literary impersonality as a therapeutic philosophical project Skepticism and Impersonality promises a new theoretical justification for our practical interest in literary texts to renovate our conception of how those texts might do philosophical work and to expand our sense of what a philosophical poem can be

The

Comparative Perspective on Literature Clayton Koelb, Susan Noakes, 1988 Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman, 2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aime Cesaire and Jose Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice
