Museum Der Modernen Poesie 1st Edition:

Translation in Anthologies and Collections (19th and 20th Centuries) Teresa Seruya, Lieven D'huilst, Alexandra Assis Rosa, Maria Lin Moniz, 2013-08-29 Among the numerous discursive carriers through which translations come into being are channeled and gain readership translation anthologies and collections have so far received little attention among translation scholars either they are let aside as almost ungraspable categories astride editing and translating mixing in most variable ways authors genres languages or cultures or are taken as convenient but rather meaningless groupings of single translations This volume takes a new stand makes a plea to consider translation anthologies and collections at face value and offers an extensive discussion about the more salient aspects of translation anthologies and collections their complex discursive properties their manifold roles in canonization processes and in strategies of cultural censorship It brings together translation scholars with different backgrounds both theoretical and historical and covering a wide array of European cultural areas and linguistic traditions Of special interest for translation theoreticians and historians as well as for scholars in literary and cultural studies comparative literature and transfer studies

The Image and Influence of America in German Poetry Since 1945 Gregory Divers, 2002 Examines the image of the US in German poetry and the reception and influence of American poetry in Germany since 1945 This book focuses on the image of the US in German poetry and the reception of American poetry in Germany since 1945 Gregory Divers examines poems by major figures in 20th century German literature Benn Brecht Bachmann Jandl and Grass among others and by other poets who shaped America's postwar image in Germany Divers traces America's postwar status in Germany from the prisoner of war poems of G nter Eich to the pop poetry of Rolf Dieter Brinkmann and Peter Handke Continuing he finds that although the 1960s protest poems of Erich Fried and others reflect the tarnishing of America's image due to Vietnam 1970s travel poems by Brinkmann Kunert and Kunze confirm the resiliency of that image Finally Divers looks at poems by Hartung Delius and Kling to illustrate the new heights reached by America's image within German literary circles during the 1980s and the status of America in Germany after reunification In charting these developments in postwar German poetry Divers also shows how American influences are crucial to its understanding not only surveying postwar German reception of Whitman Eliot Pound and William Carlos Williams but also examining the influence of such figures as Charles Olson and Robert Creeley Allen Ginsberg and the Beats Frank O Hara and John Ashbery and Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath Gregory Divers is Assistant Professor of German at Saint Louis University

Writing with the Words of Others Alan J. Clayton, 2010 Hans Magnus Enzensberger is one of the most widely read and respected writers in post war Germany In the present study a considerable number of his most important poems are closely analyzed including the texts that make up his major poetic cycles Mausoleum 1975 and Der Untergang der Titanic 1978 Central to any discussion of this highly diverse corpus is the way in which Enzensberger creates strikingly original poems on the basis of borrowed material Der Untergang der Titanic for example is closely based on the famous bestseller A Night to Remember 1955 by the American writer Walter Lord and on the film of the same name by Roy Baker 1958 Enzensberger's Versepos is simply unimaginable without Lord's book and certain episodes represented in the poem can be fully understood only by readers who have seen the film The appropriation of documentary material also plays an important role in the series of poems devoted to nature or science many of which present themselves as riddles An entire chapter is devoted to the analysis of these fascinating riddle poems The various personages portrayed in Mausoleum comprise not only scientists inventors explorers and thinkers who were responsible for truly world changing discoveries Gutenberg Humboldt and Darwin for example but also a whole series of historical figures whose admission to this oddball pantheon is best explained by the bizarreness of their often utopian projects or by their compulsive or megalomaniacal personalities The playful and provocative Enzensberger clearly chose several of these latter for their shock value Raimondo di Sangro V M Molotov Ernesto Guevara de la Serna Our reading of this collection demonstrates Enzensberger's willingness to undermine seriousness with irony and humor hence the presence of Dante and Marilyn Monroe on board the sinking Titanic The final chapter examines the relation between poetry and politics and examines the notorious essay Gemeinpl tze die Neueste Literatur betreffend 1968 as well as the disturbing interview with the Weimarer Beitr ge 1971 in which the poet expresses his thankfully short lived rejection of literature as art and his desire to break out of the Ghetto des Kulturlebens This chapter also discusses the influence of Bertolt Brecht Other chapters focus on the poet's taste for anachronism his asynchronous sensibility and the recurrent theme of disappearance

Images of the Art Museum Eva-Maria Troelenberg, Melania Savino,2017-02-06 In recent years the emerging field of museum studies has seen rapid expansion in the critical study of museums and scholars started to question the institution and its functions To contribute differentiated viewpoints to the currently evolving meta discourse on the museum this volume aims to investigate how the institution of the museum has been visualized and translated into different kinds of images and how these images have affected our perception of these institutions In this interdisciplinary collection scholars from a variety of academic backgrounds including art history heritage museums studies and architectural history explore a broad range of case studies stretching across the globe The volume opens up debate about the epistemological and historiographical significance of a variety of different images and representations of the Art Museum including the transformation or adaptation of the image of the art museum across periods and cultures In this context this volume aims to develop a new theoretical framework while proposing new methodological tools and resources for the analysis of museological representations on a global scale

The Liberal International Theory Tradition in Europe Knud Erik Jørgensen,2021-01-04 This book examines how the liberal international theory tradition evolved in Europe It includes nine chapters focusing on both historical and contemporary branches of liberal IR theorizing The combined portrait of the prominent IR theory orientation shows a long and rich theoretical tradition but also a tradition that the scholarly community rarely fully recognize It is currently somewhat challenged and therefore in need of further advances Concerning the historical branches the authors present a truly European tradition that thus was not only present in a few countries The contributors introduce examples of liberal theorizing that IR scholars tend to dismiss and they trace the boundaries between the liberal and other theoretical traditions Given the prominence of the tradition the book is surprisingly among the first to present a transnational perspective on the development of the liberal international theory tradition in Europe

Turkish Literature as World Literature Burcu Alkan,Çimen Günay-Erkol,2020-12-10 Essays covering a broad range of genres and ranging from the late Ottoman era to contemporary literature open the debate on the place of Turkish literature in the globalized literary world Explorations of the multilingual cosmopolitanism of the Ottoman literary scene are complemented by examples of cross generational intertextual encounters The renowned poet N zım Hikmet is studied from a variety of angles while contemporary and popular writers such as Orhan Pamuk and Elif Safak are contextualized Turkish Literature as World Literature not only fills a significant lacuna in world literary studies but also draws a composite historical political and cultural portrait of Turkey in its relations with the broader world
