adopted sons In the Affair of the Lie accusations against Muhammad's young wife Ishah were exploited by various factions in the community and in Muhammad's household In the end a Quranic revelation proclaimed Ishah's innocence and the culpability of the rumormongers This volume of al-Abbar's History records the collapse of Meccan resistance to Islam the triumphant return of Muhammad to his native city the conversion to Islam of the Meccan oligarchy and the community's successful weathering of a number of potentially embarrassing events in Muhammad's private life Mecca F. E. Peters, 2017-03-14 For the non-Muslim Mecca is the most forbidden of Holy Cities and yet in many ways it is the best known Muslim historians and geographers have studied it and countless pilgrims and travelers many of them European Christians in disguise have left behind lively and well-publicized accounts of life in Mecca and its associated shrine city of Medina where the Prophet lies buried The stories of all these figures holy men and heathens alike come together in this book to offer a remarkably revealing literary portrait of the city's traditions and urban life and of the surrounding area Closely following the publication of F. E. Peters's The Hajj Princeton 1994 which describes the perilous pilgrimage itself from the travelers' perspectives this collection of writings and commentary completes the historical travelogue The accounts begin with the Muslims themselves in the patriarchal age of Abraham and Ishmael and trace the sometimes glorious and sometimes sad history of Islam's central shrine down to the last Grand Sharif of Mecca Husayn ibn Ali whose fragile kingdom was overtaken by the House of Saud in 1926 Because of chronic flooding and constant rebuilding there is little or no material evidence for the early history of Islam's holy cities By assembling analyzing and fashioning these literary accounts of Mecca however Peters supplies us with a vivid sense of place and human interaction much as he did in his widely acclaimed Jerusalem Princeton 1985 Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Muhammad Hans Jansen, 2012-02 Available for the first time in English Jansen examines the original Arabic accounts of Muhammad's life to uncover both the historical facts about the life of the Prophet and the intent of the authors of the earliest Muslim chroniclers Islamic Review and Muslim India, 1918 The Prophet Muhammad Mustafa: Medina period Osman Nuri Topbas, 2010
