Franco's Famine Miguel Ángel del Arco Blanco, Peter Anderson, 2021-09-09 At least 200 000 people died from hunger or malnutrition related diseases in Spain during the 1940s This book provides a political explanation for the famine and brings together a broad range of academics based in Spain the United Kingdom the United States and Australia to achieve this Topics include the political causes of the famine the physical and social consequences the ways Spaniards tried to survive the regime s reluctance to accept international relief the politics of cooking at a time of famine and the memory of the famine The volume challenges the silence and misrepresentation that still surround the famine It reveals the reality of how people perished in Spain because the Francoist authorities instituted a policy of food self sufficiency or autarky a system of price regulation which placed restrictions on transport as well as food sales The contributors trace the massive decline in food production which followed the hoarding which took place on an enormous scale and the vast and deeply iniquitous black market that subsequently flourished at a time when salaries plunged to 50% below their levels in 1936 all contributing factors in the large scale atrocity explored fully here for the first time

Dominant Culture and the Education of Women Julia C. Paulk, 2009-05-05 Women s access to education over the centuries has been determined by many factors including class race religion and nationality Although women s experiences are marked by a rich diversity women are in many ways united by their struggle to gain access to education While previous essay collections that study this topic have tended to be more limited in scope Dominant Culture and the Education of Women addresses the educational experiences of women from the fourth to the twenty first century in Europe and the Americas Because of its inclusive nature this collection demonstrates not only that women have made great strides in education but also that certain challenges have yet to be overcome While medieval women faced cloistering and severe restrictions modern women have gained entry into previously all male universities and male dominated professions However women under totalitarian regimes or from marginalized communities continue to struggle against patriarchal conceptions of women s roles and use of the tools of literacy This volume will appeal to all who seek new insights into the many subjects related to female education including women s studies education comparative cultural and literary studies and history
