The Mousejunkies are a group of seemingly well-adjusted adults who have found themselves inexplicably drawn to Walt Disney World again and again. Each has taken his or her own path, finding their way separately. When the smoke cleared, the group found itself back in reality, staring at one another over a pile of discarded annual passes and a useless collection of novelty hats. The stories are wry, humorous, and told with an affection gained through years of Disney addiction. Paint vivid portraits of a creatively engineered world where unexpected surprises create lasting memories. The tips, valuable information designed to help readers get more out of their vacations, are told with a sly wink and the desire to share the secrets that make trips to central Florida more memorable. From touring plans to tongue-in-cheek reviews of the theme parks' restrooms, Mousejunkies provides readers with useful information couched in obsessively detailed narrative with a humorous touch. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, Katharine Sergeant Angell, White, David Remnick, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1963.
