Johnston, 2021-02-11 Diagnosing Postcolonial Literature is a fresh and needed intervention into the study of postcolonial literature and the postcolonial condition Deleuze's notion that literature is an enterprise of health and that great authors consequently are diagnosticians of their culture can be applied to postcolonial literature The methodology however goes beyond the Deleuzian approach and offers a rich synthesis of Deleuze and Guattari with a range of different frameworks including health and human rights issues the capabilities approach of Sen and Nussbaum and the quantitative formalism of

Moretti This book majorly seeks to combine the study of postcolonial literature a field in which Deleuze and Guattari are often used with social sciences and quantitative methods The work is genuinely interdisciplinary and breaks new ground both for the study of postcolonial literature and applications of Deleuze and Guattari It does this while maintaining a focus on health broadly conceived in as an assemblage in Deleuzian fashion The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26 This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works authors or translators Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry novels memoir and theatre Divided into three sections these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style the author translator reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan Chinese Dutch English French German Hebrew Italian Japanese Nigerian English Russian Spanish Scottish English and Turkish The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory practice link Covering a wide range of topics perspectives methods languages and geographies this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics Languages and Cultural Studies Stylistics Comparative Literature or Literary Studies Borges, Buddhism and World Literature Dominique Jullien, 2019-01-04 This book follows the renunciation story in Borges and beyond arguing for its centrality as a Borgesian compositional trope and as a Borgesian prism for reading a global constellation of texts The renunciation story at the heart of Buddhism that of a king who leaves his palace to become an ascetic fascinated Borges because of its cross cultural adaptability and metamorphic nature and because it resonated so powerfully across philosophy politics and aesthetics From the story and its many variants Borges s essays formulated a morphological conception of literature borrowing the idea from Goethe whereby a potentially infinite number of stories were generated by transformation of a finite number of archetypes The king and ascetic encounter also tells a powerful political story setting up a confrontation between power and authority Borges s own political predicament is explored against the rich background of truth telling renouncers In its poetic variant the renunciation archetype morphs into stories about art and artists with renunciation a key requirement of the creative process the discussion weaves in and out of Borges to highlight modern writers debt to asceticism Ultimately the enigmatic appeal of the renunciation story aligns it with the open endedness of modern parables

Childhood explores the complexity of French identity in writings that focus on the experience of children Nina Bouraoui Linda L and Gis le Pineau French writers of Algerian Vietnamese and Guadelupean origin respectively are discussed within the text because of their use of educational and familial contexts to explore the meanings of childhood in fiction In their role as literary double agents who view French identity against the grain these three writers perceive French identity from multiple angles The selected texts counter preconceived notions about children and childhood in their portrayal of child narrator protagonist mostly girl children who make prophetic revelations They are marginalized schoolchildren who denounce French society and institutions for failing them children who cross the boundaries of gender and sexuality and children of the French empire who tell French colonial and post colonial history from their unique perspectives The current crisis in French universalism is mirrored in the literary portrayal of child figures as victors and victims because these representations make visible the relational dynamic between France and her former colonies which underlie the silenced history of colonialism and post colonialism that continues to define French identity

Histories of Violence Brad Evans, Terrell Carver, 2017-01-15 While there is a tacit appreciation that freedom from violence will lead to more prosperous relations among peoples violence continues to be deployed for various political and social ends Yet the problem of violence still defies neat description subject to many competing interpretations Histories of Violence offers an accessible yet compelling examination of the problem of violence as it appears in the corpus of canonical figures from Hannah Arendt to Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault to Slavoj i ek who continue to influence and inform contemporary political philosophical sociological cultural and anthropological study Written by a team of internationally renowned experts this is an essential interrogation of post war critical thought as it relates to violence

Gibson,Roberto Beneduce,2017-09-25 The revolutionary and psychiatrist Frantz Fanon was a foundational figure in postcolonial and decolonial thought and practice yet his psychiatric work still has only been studied peripherally That is in part because most of his psychiatric writings have remained untranslated With a focus on Fanon's key psychiatry texts Frantz Fanon Psychiatry and Politics considers Fanon's psychiatric writings as materials anticipating as well as accompanying Fanon's better known work written between 1952 and 1961 Black Skin White Masks A Dying Colonialism Toward the African Revolution The Wretched of the Earth Both clinical and political they draw on another notion of psychiatry that intersects history ethnology philosophy and psychoanalysis The authors argue that Fanon's work inaugurates a critical ethnopsychiatry based on a new concept of culture anchored to historical events particular situations and lived experience and on the relationship between the psychological and the cultural Thus Gibson and Beneduce contend that Fanon's psychiatric writings also express Fanon's wish as he puts it in The Wretched of the Earth to develop a new way of thinking not only for us but for humanity Muriel Spark David Herman,2010-06 A substantial addition to Spark criticism of which there has been surprisingly little published in recent years Aileen Christianson University of Edinburgh Book Jacket Mystical Islam and Cosmopolitanism in Contemporary German Literature Joseph Twist,2018 Highlights the spirituality and cosmopolitanism of four contemporary German Muslim writers showing that they undermine the clash of civilizations narrative and open up space for new ways of coexisting The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L.
