THE MULTICULTURALISM OF FEAR

JACOB T. LEVY

Multiculturalism Of Fear

Susan Cahan, Zoya Kocur

Multiculturalism Of Fear:

The Multiculturalism of Fear Jacob T. Levy, 2000 Jacob Levy argues for a liberal account of multiculturalism that draws on a liberalism of fear like that articulated by Judith Shklar and inspired by Montesquieu Liberalism should focus on mitigating evils rather than support cultural belonging The Multiculturalism of Fear Jacob T. Levy, 2000-08-17 This vital new liberal account of multiculturalism combines an analysis of the policy dilemmas faced by multiethnic states around the world with a philosophical consideration of multiculturalism and nationalism Jacob T Levy boldly argues that liberalism should not be centrally concerned with either preserving or transcending cultural communities practices and identities Rather he contends that liberalism should focus on mitigating evils such as inter ethnic civil wars and state violence against ethnic minorities In order for this multiculturalism of fear to be grounded in the realities of ethnic politics and conflict it must take seriously the importance people place on their ethnic identities and cultural practices without falling into a celebration of cultural belonging Levy applies his approach to a variety of policy problems including the regulation of sexist practices inside cultural communities secession and national self determination land rights and customary law and draws on cases from such diverse states as Australia Canada Israel India South Africa and the United States □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□

1930, From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski, Daphna Elfersy, 2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving

The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism Duncan Ivison, 2016-03-23 The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism brings together a collection of new essays by leading and emerging scholars in the humanities and social sciences on some of the key issues facing multiculturalism today It provides a comprehensive and cutting edge treatment of this important and hotly contested field offering scholars and students a clear account of the leading theories and critiques of multiculturalism that have developed over the past twenty five years as well as a sense of the challenges facing multiculturalism in the future Key leading scholars including James Bohman Barbara Arneil Avigail Eisenberg Ghassan Hage and Paul Patton discuss multiculturalism in different cultural and national contexts and across a range of disciplinary approaches In addition to contributions Duncan Ivison also provides a comprehensive Introduction which surveys the field and offers an extensive guide to further reading This is a key volume for anyone interested in multiculturalism and its political premise Contemporary Debates in Social Philosophy Laurence Thomas, 2007-08-27 In this important and engaging volume international scholars present opposing viewpoints to debate ten of the most important issues in contemporary social philosophy Provides an original analysis of some of society's most pressing issues Written by an outstanding cast of international scholars Issues covered include the nature of freedom the limits of religious tolerance affirmative action parenting the death penalty privacy violence world hunger social diversity homosexuality and abortion Invites the reader to participate in the exchange of arguments Ethical Competencies for Public Leadership David Bromell, 2019-10-31 This book identifies six ethical competencies for public leadership in contexts of pluralism While diversity in proximity generates conflict where people want and value different things the right kind of leadership and the right kind of politics can minimise domination humiliation cruelty and violence Written by a public policy advisor for fellow practitioners in politics and public life this book applies political theory and social ethics to identify a set of competencies being civil diplomatic respectful impartial fair and prudent to keep ethics at the centre of a pluralist democratic politics The six competencies are described in behavioural terms as personal resolutions They offer valuable tools for mentoring and professional development This book will appeal to politicians and those who advise them and anyone who engages in or aspires to public leadership whether in the public sector the private sector the community and voluntary sector or academia

Equality Renewed Christine Sypnowich, 2016-12-19 How should we approach the daunting task of renewing the ideal of equality In this book Christine Sypnowich proposes a theory of equality centred on human flourishing or wellbeing She argues that egalitarianism should be understood as seeking to make people more equal in the constituents of a good life Inequality is a social ill because of the damage it does to human flourishing unequal distribution of wealth can have the effect that some people are poorly housed badly nourished ill educated unhappy or uncultured among other things When we seek to make people more equal our concern is not just resources or property but how people fare under one distribution or another Ultimately the best answer to the question equality of what is some conception of flourishing since whatever policies or principles we adopt it is flourishing that we hope will be more equal as a result of our endeavours Sypnowich calls for both retrieval and innovation What is to be retrieved is the ideal of equality itself which is often assumed as a background condition of theories of justice yet at the same time dismissed as too homogenising abstract and rigid a criterion for political argument We must retrieve the ideal of equality as a central political principle In doing so she casts doubt on the value of focussing on cultural difference and rejects the idea of neutrality that dominates contemporary political philosophy in favour of a view of the state as enabling the betterment of its citizens Beyond the Canon M. Grever, S. Stuurman, 2007-10-11

Beyond the Canon deals with recent politicized processes of canonization and its implications for historical culture in a globalizing and postcolonial world The volume discusses the framing and transmission of historical knowledge and its consequences for the construction of narratives and the teaching of history in multicultural environments American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 32:2 Sidek Bin Baba, Mohamad Johdi Salleh, Tareq M. Moralized Selves : Liberty and Self-government in the Multicultural State Steven Andrew Kelts,2002

Critical Multiculturalism Stephen May,2005-08-18 This book aims to bring together two movements multiculturalism and anti racism which though having aims in common have been at arms length in the past Differences of emphasis have meant that classroom practice has been the natural realm of multiculturalism while anti racism has been dissatisfied with an approach that accentuates life style at the expense of challenging or changing the racism that minority students experience In these debates there has been a concentration on culturally specific topics and this book goes beyond national boundaries to find how international concerns and contexts might provide answers to problems faced in single countries Leading figures in the USA Canada South Africa the UK and Australasia write on the issues

Multiculturalism Michael Murphy,2013-03-01 What is multiculturalism and what are the different theories used to justify it Are multicultural policies a threat to liberty and equality Can liberal democracies accommodate minority groups without sacrificing peace and stability In this clear introduction to the subject Michael Murphy explores these questions and critically assesses multiculturalism from the standpoint of political philosophy and political practice The book explores the origins and contemporary usage of the concept of multiculturalism in the context of debates about citizenship egalitarian justice and conflicts between individual and collective rights The ideas of some of the most influential champions and critics of multiculturalism including Will Kymlicka Chandran Kukathas Susan Okin and Brian Barry are also clearly explained and evaluated Key themes include the tension between multiculturalism and gender equality cultural relativism and the limits of liberal toleration and the impact of multicultural policies on social cohesion ethnic conflict Murphy also surveys the legal practices and policies enacted to accommodate multiculturalism drawing on examples from the Americas Australasia Europe Asia and the Middle East

Multiculturalism A Critical Introduction is an ideal starting point for anyone coming to the topic for the first time as well as those already familiar with some of the key issues

The International Migration Review ,2002

Twenty Steps Toward a Climate of Justice Marvin T. Brown,2025-01-31 This book provides a multilayered approach twenty steps on how we might move toward a social climate of justice Posts written for the Climate of Justice Project exemplify how the steps direct us toward meaningful engagement with our social political and environmental challenges The 116 posts were written as responses to conflicts ideas and conversations between 2020 and 2024 Many of the posts are instances of dialogue with over 60 authors who have contributed to public discourse such as

Richard Powers Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz and Robin Wall Kimmerer Some posts are more philosophical than others and some more humorous such as the imaginary interview with Amy Coney Barrett The first step Focus the Mind on a Climate of Justice lays out the basic premise of the book with eight posts including Who will Protect us and A Framework for our Thinking The second step Take Care of Civic Spaces defines the civic as the space where we can reconcile social differences and repair social damages Step three addresses a common barrier to a climate of justice authoritarian zealots with four posts including A Message to Christian Nationalism The seventeen other steps from Abolish White Supremacy to Care for Civilians include posts that respond to such events as Black Lives Matter the coronavirus the Russian invasion of Ukraine and October 7 While the events keep changing taking the steps that will move us toward a climate of justice have become even more relevant

Religion and Diversity in Canada Lori Gail Beaman, Peter Beyer, 2008 Canada officially prides itself on being a multicultural nation welcoming people from all around the world and enshrining that status in its Charter of Rights and Freedoms as well as in an array of laws and policies that aim to protect citizens from discrimination on various grounds including race cultural origin sexual orientation and religion This volume explores the intersection of these diversities foregrounding religion as the primary focus of analysis Taking as their point of departure the contested meaning and implications of the term diversity the various contributions address issues such as the power relations that diversity implies the cultural context that limits the understanding and practical acceptance of religious diversity and how Canada compares in these matters to other countries Taken together the essays therefore elucidate the Canadian case while also having relevance for understanding this critical issue globally
