Multiculturalism, Chinese Identity, and Education Jason Cong Lin, 2022-11-02 In Chinese societies Chinese identity is an important yet controversial topic This book examines official understandings of Chinese identity in Mainland China and Hong Kong exploring how the latest governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong conceptualize Chinese identity how government endorsed textbooks frame it in different subjects and how a multicultural approach can enhance understanding of identity in both societies Using content analysis to support his theoretical arguments Lin offers an in depth updated and detailed picture of how the governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong and their endorsed textbooks encourage people in these societies to respond to the question of who are we He also elaborates on how the current approach to understanding Chinese identity can be harmful and examines how a multicultural approach could better fit these Chinese contexts and enhance understanding of who are we Given that the question of identity causes trouble everywhere and many countries are debating approaches to understanding diverse identities in their own societies this book provides valuable insights into the Chinese perspective to allow readers to more fully understand global frameworks of identity This book will interest researchers and students in the fields of multiculturalism multicultural education national identity identity politics and China and Hong Kong studies

Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities

Ethics and Politics Peter Kemp, Noriko Hashimoto, 2015 The main theme of volume 4 of Eco ethica is Ethics and Politics In the first and second part the authors examine the sometimes conflictual relationship between ethics and politics from an eco ethical perspective They investigate how our conceptions of both ethics and politics have been shaped historically as well as by today s technological conjuncture The third part continues the discussion of French philosopher Paul Ricoeur 1913 2005 begun in volume 3 The essays here focus on how his conception of the connections and differences between ethics and politics led him to embrace certain paradoxes in politics and forced him to become suspicious of apolitical thinking      Reconciling Canada Jennifer Henderson, Pauline Wakeham, 2013-06-17 Truth and reconciliation commissions and official governmental apologies continue to surface worldwide as mechanisms for coming to terms with human rights violations and social atrocities As the first scholarly collection to explore the intersections and differences between a range of redress cases that have emerged in Canada in recent decades Reconciling Canada provides readers with the contexts for understanding the phenomenon of reconciliation as it has played out in this multicultural settler state In this volume leading scholars in the humanities and social sciences relate contemporary political and social efforts to redress wrongs to the fraught history of government relations with Aboriginal and diasporic populations The contributors offer ground breaking perspectives on Canada s culture of redress broaching questions of law and constitutional change political coalitions commemoration testimony and literatures of injury and its aftermath Also assembled together for the first time is a collection of primary documents including government reports parliamentary debates and redress movement statements prefaced with contextual information Reconciling Canada provides a vital and immensely relevant illumination of the dynamics of reconciliation apology and redress in contemporary Canada      Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye, 2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society      Handbook of European Social Policy Patricia Kennett, Noemi Lendvai-Bainton, 2017-08-25 This Handbook will comprise of 29 original pieces from key contributors to the field of European social policy It is intended to capture the state of the art in European social policy and to generate and contribute to debates on the the future of European social policy in the 21st Century It will be a comprehensive and authoritative resource for research and teaching covering themes and policy areas including social exclusion pensions education children and family as well as mobility and migration multiculturalism and climate change

Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi, 2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres The author does not view the two as binary opposites Rather she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women's rights and gender equality Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature Varun Gulati, Garima Dalal, 2017-05-30 Women and the word marginalization have never remained oxymoronic the cross cultural texts and Engels interest on subjugation make a perfect recipe for this incongruity Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature traces multifarious facets of marginalized literature across the world giving a brilliant overview of the historical roots of multiculturalist and marginalized sections The fourteen chapters relate key literary and cultural texts and cover a broad spectrum of historical linguistic and theoretical issues There are three sections in the book section I has four chapters dealing specifically theoretical constructions and representations Section II consists of four chapters that offer varied spectrum of discourses on world literature intersecting with the frameworks of literary theories Section III comprises six chapters that explore the mind of dalits subalterns colonial women and gender issues of a variety of Indian English Writers and draw varied perspectives of it
