Multiculturalism and Ukrainian Canadians Stella M. Hryniuk, Lubomyr Y. Luciuk, 1993 The Ukrainian Diaspora Vic Satzewich, 2003-09-02 In this fascinating book Vic Satzewich traces one hundred and twenty five years of Ukrainian migration from the economic migration at the end of the nineteenth century to the political migration during the inter war period and throughout the 1960s and 1980s resulting from the troubled relationship between Russia and the Ukraine The author looks at the ways the Ukrainian Diaspora has retained its identity at the different factions within it and its response to the war crimes trials of the 1980s Multiculturalism and Ukrainian Canadians Stella M. Next-Generation Memory and Ukrainian Canadian Children's Historical Fiction Mateusz Świetlicki, 2023-03-24 This is the first book monograph devoted to Anglophone Ukrainian Canadian children's historical fiction published between 1991 and 2021 It consists of five chapters offering cross sectional and interdisciplinary readings of 41 books novels novellas picturebooks short stories and a graphic novel The first three chapters focus on texts about the complex process of becoming Ukrainian Canadian showcasing the experiences of the first two waves of Ukrainian immigration to Canada including encounters with Indigenous Peoples and the First World War Internment The last two chapters are devoted to the significance of the cultural memory of the Holodomor the Great Famine of 1932 1933 and the Second World War for Ukrainian Canadians All the chapters demonstrate the entanglements of Ukrainian and Canadian history and point to the role Anglophone children's literature can play in preventing the symbolical seeds of memory from withering This volume argues that reading imagining and reimagining history can lead to the formation of beyond textual next generation memory Such memory created through reading is multidimensional as it involves the interpretation of both the present and the past by an individual whose reality has been directly or indirectly shaped by the past over which they have no influence Next generation memory is of anticipatory character which means that authors of historical fiction anticipate the readers both present day and future not to have direct links to any witnesses of the events they discuss and to have little knowledge of the transcultural character of the Ukrainian Canadian diaspora Ethnic Elites and Canadian Identity Aya Fujiwara, 2012-11-30 Ethnic elites the influential business owners teachers and newspaper editors within distinct ethnic communities play an important role as self appointed mediators between their communities and mainstream societies In Ethnic Elites and Canadian Identity Aya Fujiwara examines the roles of Japanese Ukrainian and Scottish elites during the transition of Canadian identity from Anglo conformity to ethnic pluralism By comparing the strategies and discourses used by each community including rhetoric myths collective memories and symbols she reveals how prewar community leaders were driving forces in the development of multiculturalism policy In doing so she challenges the widely held notion that multiculturalism was a product of the 1960s formulated and promoted by mainstream Canadians and places the emergence of Canadian multiculturalism within a transnational context Ukrainian Historical Writing in North America during the Cold War Volodymyr V. Kravchenko, 2022-12-13 This book is the first comprehensive survey of Ukrainian historical writing in North America during the Cold War The author describes the development of Ukrainian historical studies in Canada and the United States as an open sometimes difficult dialogue between the Ukrainian ethnic and academic communities on the one hand and between Ukrainian scholars and Western academic mainstream on the other He focuses on the institutional and the intellectual issues including various interpretations of major topics related to the Ukrainian national grand narrative considering them in the evolving academic and political contexts of Slavic East European and Soviet studies The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology Home-work Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2004-06-22 Canadian literature and specifically the teaching of Canadian literature has emerged from a colonial duty to a nationalist enterprise and into the current territory of postcolonialism From practical discussions related to specific texts to more theoretical discussions about pedagogical practice regarding issues of nationalism and identity Home Work constitutes a major investigation and reassessment of the influence of postcolonial theory on Canadian literary pedagogy from some of the top scholars in the field Strategic Friends Bohdan S. Kordan, 2019-01-21 Since the end of the Soviet Union Canada has played a leading role in the international response to Ukraine and to the challenges associated with its transition to independence As Conservative and Liberal governments alike have sought to adapt foreign policy to contend with uncertainty and upheaval the relationship between Canada and Ukraine has remained resilient In Strategic Friends Bohdan Kordan examines the intersections between global developments and Canada's evolving foreign policy in light of national interests domestic factors and political agency His historical comparative narrative follows the post Cold War aspirations and ambitions of the Mulroney Chr tien Martin and Harper governments as they worked to minimize conflict increase security contextualize the independence movement manage bilateral relations and promote election monitoring as well as defend liberal democracy and the territorial integrity of Ukraine Consulting media reports official speeches statements published government documents and archives of the Ukrainian Canadian Congress Kordan highlights both continuities and shifts in policy during the leadership of four prime ministers and reveals the undercurrents of contemporary Canadian foreign affairs Investigating the progression of the Canada Ukraine relationship Strategic Friends queries the dynamics that have shaped Canada's foreign policy response in an age of change Transnational Identities and Practices in Canada Vic Satzewich, Lloyd Wong, 2011-11-01 With contributions from some of Canada's leading historians political scientists geographers anthropologists and sociologists this collection examines the transnational practices and identities of immigrant and ethnic communities in Canada It looks at why members of these groups maintain ties with their homelands whether real or imagined and how those connections shape individual identities and community organizations How does transnationalism establish or transform geographical social and ideological borders Do homeland ties affect what it means to be Canadian Do they reflect Canada's commitment to multiculturalism Through analysis of the complex forces driving transnationalism this comprehensive study focuses attention on an important and arguably growing dimension of Canadian social life This is the first collection in Canada to provide a comprehensive and interdisciplinary examination of transnationalism It will appeal to scholars and students interested in issues of immigration multiculturalism ethnicity and settlement Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars, Gerry Turcotte, 2010-08-27 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada's colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present As these essays demonstrate formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors In recent years however minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic signalling an emerging critical discourse This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation A Sharing of Diversities Jewish Mennonite Ukrainian Committee, 1999 Histoire Sociale, 1994 Independent Ukraine Bohdan S. Wynar, 2000 Approximately 1700 entries describe monographs scholarly essays and doctoral dissertations published in the Ukraine from 1990 to 1999 The material is arranged in chapters with an introduction outlining developments and important authors and their works Canadian Slavonic Papers, 1995 Identità ucraina Simone Attilio Bellezza, 2024-01-12T00:00:00+01:00 L Ucraina stata molto a lungo una mera espressione geografica sulla carta d'Europa un territorio conteso tra imperi potenti e in concorrenza tra loro Eppure a partire dall'ottocento si sviluppata una coscienza nazionale che dopo il 1989 ha dato senso e identità al nuovo stato indipendente Questo libro ne ricostruisce la storia e mostra come questo processo influenzi l'attuale conflitto con la Russia International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson, [Anonymus AC01401231], 1995 America, History and Life, 1996 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide American Book Publishing Record, 1996-05
