Multicultural Education in Western Societies James A. Banks, James Lynch, 1986 Ethnicity and Globalization Stephen Castles, 2000-07-14 This book written by one of the leading authorities on migration traces the growth of global migration since 1945 showing how it has produced fundamental economic social and cultural changes in most parts of the world Using techniques of comparative analysis the book shows the gap between global migration and policy As the postwar demand for labour outstripped supply flows of ethnic migration were encouraged throughout the developed Western countries The rooting of new ethnicities in different soils was neither planned or managed effectively The book shows how the economic demand for work has been supplemented by the demand from asylum seekers to recognize injustice and oppression The book also examines the emergence of multicultural societies and the impact of this on traditional concepts of citizenship culture and identity Global Communication Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2024-03-05 The fourth edition of Global Communication is the most comprehensive multidisciplinary multicultural authoritative and cutting edge book published in the fields of media culture journalism and communications Twenty four highly accomplished and prominent media scholars representing ten countries provide a survey of international communication public relations and advertising implications of globalization international law and regulation global culture propaganda transnational media the shifting politics of media trends in communication and information technology and much more The fourth edition includes six new contributors Lee B Artz Daniela V Dimitrova Berna Ackali Gur Petros Iosifidis Perry Keller and Nicholas Nicoli who cover such issues as politics of global culture global theories global law implications of internet and politics Other chapters are fully updated to foreground contemporary examples and major events that have impacted our global communication environment Collectively new contributions and updated chapters reflect the rapid technological and communications changes that are taking place nationally and globally This eclectic book helps students to understand the emergence of globalization and its effects on a worldwide scale Contributors Lee B Artz George A Barnett Vibert C Cambridge Jane Campbell Theresa Carilli Benjamin A Davis Daniela V Dimitrova John D H Downing Richard A Gershon Berna Ackali Gur Cees Hamelink Petros Iosifidis Yahya Kamalipour Yesim Kaptan Perry Keller Dean Kruckeberg Lars Lundgren Vincent Mosco Nicholas Nicoli Allen Palmer Kuldip R Rampal Devan Rosen Harmeet Sawhney Richard Vincent and Marina Vujnovic Private International Law and Global Governance Horatia Muir Watt, Diego P. Fernández Arroyo, 2014-12-18 Contemporary debates about the changing nature of law engage theories of legal pluralism political economy social systems international relations or regime theory global constitutionalism and public international law Such debates reveal a variety of emerging responses to distributional issues which arise beyond the Western welfare state and new conceptions of private transnational authority However private international law tends to stand aloof claiming process based neutrality or the apolitical nature of private law technique and refusing to recognize frontiers beyond those of the nation state As a result the discipline is paradoxically ill equipped to deal with the most significant cross border legal difficulties from immigration to private financial regulation which might have been expected to fall within its remit Contributing little to the governance of transnational non state power it is largely complicit in its unhampered expansion This is all the more a paradox given that the new thinking from other fields which seek to fill the void theories of legal pluralism peer networks transnational substantive rules privatized dispute resolution and regime collision have long been part of the daily fare of the conflict of laws The crucial issue now is whether private international law can or indeed should survive as a discipline This volume lays the foundations for a critical approach to private international law in the global era While the governance of global issues such as health climate and finance clearly implicates the law and particularly international law its private law dimension is generally invisible This book develops the idea that the liberal divide between public and private international law has enabled the unregulated expansion of transnational private power in these various fields It explores the potential of private international law to reassert a significant governance function in respect of new forms of authority beyond the state To do so it must shed a number of assumptions entrenched in the culture of the nation state but this will permit the discipline to expand its potential to confront major issues in global governance Social Science Record ,1993 Romanian Literature as World Literature Mircea

Martin, Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, 2017-12-28 Approaching Romanian literature as world literature this book is a critical theoretical manifesto that places its object at the crossroads of empires regions and influences and draws conclusions whose relevance extends beyond the Romanian Romance and East European cultural systems This intersectional revisiting of Romanian literature is organized into three parts Opening with a fresh look at the literary ideology of Romania's national poet Mihai Eminescu part I dwells primarily on literary cultural history as process and discipline Here the focus is on cross cultural mimesis the role of strategic imitation in the production of a distinct literature in modern Romania and the shortcomings marking traditional literary historiography's handling of these issues Part II examines the ethno linguistic and territorial complexity of Romanian literatures or Romanian literature in the plural Part III takes up the trans systemic rise of Romanian Jewish Romanian and Romanian European avant garde and modernism Socialist Realism exile and migr literature and translation Civilization, 1995 The magazine of the Library of Congress Race and Ethnic Relations, 1996-1997 John A. Kromkowski, 1996 Current Index to Journals in Education, 1996 Discourses of Globalisation, Multiculturalism and Cultural Identity Joseph Zajda, Nitza Davidovitch, Suzanne Majhanovich, 2023-01-01 This book examines dominant discourses in multiculturalism and cultural identity globally It critiques dominant discourses and debates pertaining to multiculturalism and cultural identity set against the current backdrop of growing social stratification and unequal access to quality education It addresses current discourses concerning globalisation ideologies and the state as well as approaches to constructing national ethnic and religious identities in the global culture It explores the ambivalent and problematic connections between the state globalisation and the construction of cultural identity The book also explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable to research on the state globalisation multiculturalism and identity politics Drawing on diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to globalisation the book by focusing on globalisation ideology and cultural identity critically examines recent research dealing with cultural diversity and its impact of identity politics Given the need for a multiple perspective approach the authors who have diverse backgrounds and hail from different countries and regions offer a wealth of insights contributing to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between multiculturalism and national identity With contributions from key scholars worldwide the book should be required reading for a broad spectrum of users including policy makers academics graduate students education policy researchers administrators and practitioners
