MULTIPLYING CHURCHES...

- Do everything a Sending Church would do (take responsibility for a church plant by sending them and helping ensure they get the preparation, coaching and care they need).
- Establish a process for discovering planters (identifying those who might have a call to church planting and helping them consider the call).
- Establish a process for developing planters (taking those who respond to a potential call and helping them develop).
- Send a planter out from your church (at least once every three years).
