Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Adult Esl Trudy Smoke, 2013-05-13 The essays in this book focus on political strategies pedagogical models and community programs that enable adult ESL learners to become vital members of North American society This is particularly important in our present time of contraction and downsizing in the education of non native speakers The authors represent a broad range of programs and perspectives but they all have in common the goal of enabling both faculty and students to become full participants in our society and thereby to gain control over their futures Readers of this book will develop an understanding of the ways in which innovative educators are creating strategies for maintaining language programs and services Asian American Autobiographers

Guiyou Huang,2001-05-30 Asian Americans have made many significant contributions to industry science politics and the arts At the same time they have made great sacrifices and endured enormous hardships This reference examines autobiographies and memoirs written by Asian Americans in the twentieth century Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 60 major autobiographers of Asian descent Some of these such as Meena Alexander and Maxine Hong Kingston are known primarily for their writings others such as Daniel K Inouye are known largely for other achievements which they have chronicled in their autobiographies Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a reliable account of the autobiographer s life reviews major autobiographical works and themes including fictionalized autobiographies and autobiographical novels presents a meticulously researched account of the critical reception of these works and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay considers the history and development of autobiography in American literature and culture and discusses issues and themes vital to Asian American autobiographies and memoirs such as family diaspora nationhood identity cultural assimilation racial dynamics and the formation of the Asian American literary canon The volume closes with a selected bibliography Literature and Ethnic Discrimination

Michael J. Meyer,2023-11-27 Even though universities and colleges make a concerted effort to foster unity and worldwide acceptance of different ethnicities by including politically correct literature in their curriculums their attempts to protect students from being exposed to texts that portray discrimination and exhibit racial insensitivity are futile and ill advised Texts that contain biases based on otherness continue to be written and those produced in the past remain relevant and still demand the attention of an audience of reader In order to see the full picture of the world in which they live students must face even that which is uncomfortable and disturbing To think otherwise is to create an academic environment that is totally idealistic and distorts the fact that ethnic discrimination has been a potent reality in every society in history and remains so today These studies in this volume allow readers to meet writers from the traditional American and European canon while also being exposed to third world writers whose work may be unfamiliar They include memoirs of Holocaust survivors and even record the silencing of Italian women Apartheid in South Africa and tribal conflict in Nigeria as well as transplanted Asian culture in Canada and the idolization of the black body in Japan The collection permits a viewing of the ethnic other not merely in a politically correct way in which one samples the differences and nods approvingly Rather its intent is to offer opportunities for contemplative assessment of authorial motives and goals thereby engendering a wealth of understanding based on active engagement rather than passive acceptance of the status quo Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang,2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading
