Current Work in the History of Medicine, 1999      Key Concepts in Romantic Literature Jane Moore, John

Strachan, 2010-09-10 Key Concepts in Romantic Literature is an accessible and easy to use scholarly guide to the literature criticism and history of the culturally rich and politically turbulent Romantic era 1789-1832. The book offers a comprehensive and critically up to date account of the fascinating poetry, novels and drama which characterized the Romantic period alongside an historically informed account of the important social, political and aesthetic contexts which shaped that body of writing. The epochal poetry of William Wordsworth, William Blake, Mary Robinson, S. T. Coleridge, Charlotte Smith, P. B. Shelley, Lord Byron, John Keats, Felicia Hemans and Letitia Elizabeth Landon, the drama of Joanna Baillie and Charles Robert Maturin, the novels of Jane Austen and Mary Shelley, all of these figures and many more are insightfully discussed here together with clear and helpful accounts of the key contexts of the age's literature including the French Revolution, slavery, industrialisation, empire and the rise of feminism, as well as accounts of perhaps less familiar aspects of late Georgian culture such as visionary spirituality, atheism, gambling, fashion, music and sport. This is the broadest guide available to late eighteenth and early nineteenth century British and Irish literature, history and culture.      Handbook of British Travel Writing Barbara Schaff, 2020-09-07

This handbook offers a systematic exploration of current key topics in travel writing studies. It addresses the history, impact and unique discursive variety of British travel writing by covering some of the most celebrated and canonical authors of the genre as well as lesser known ones in more than thirty close reading chapters. Combining theoretically informed astute literary criticism of single texts with the analysis of the circumstances of their production and reception, these chapters offer excellent possibilities for understanding the complexity and cultural relevance of British travel writing.      This Long

Pursuit Richard Holmes, 2017-03-07 From the award winning author of The Age of Wonder and Falling Upwards here is a luminous meditation on the art of biography that fuses the author's own experiences with a history of the genre and explores the fascinating and surprising relationship between fact and fiction. In a book that ranges widely over art, science and poetry, Richard Holmes confesses to a lifetime's obsession with his Romantic subjects. It has become for him a pursuit or pilgrimage of the heart that has taken him across three centuries through much of Europe and into the lively company of many earlier biographers. Central to this quest is a powerful and tender evocation of the lives of women, both scientific and literary, some well known and some almost lost to history: Margaret Cavendish, Mary Somerville, Germaine de Staël, Mary Wollstonecraft and the Dutch intellectual Zilide Holmes also investigates the myths that have overshadowed the lives of some favorite Romantic figures: the love-stunned John Keats, the waterlogged Percy Bysshe Shelley, the chocolate box painter Thomas Lawrence, the opium-soaked genius Samuel Taylor Coleridge and the mad visionary bard William Blake. The diversity of Holmes's material is a testimony to his empathy, erudition and inquiring spirit, and sometimes to his mischievous streak. The Long Pursuit gives us a unique insider's account of a biographer at work: traveling, teaching, researching, fantasizing, forgetting and even ballooning.

From this great chronicler of the Romantics now comes a chronicle of himself and his intellectual passions it contains his most personal and most seductive writing Explorers Matthew Lockwood,2024-10-15 Wonderfully insightful and entertaining gives voice to those who have been overlooked for too long Eric Jay Dolin author of Left for Dead The impulse to seek out new worlds is universal to humanity Unfurling a tapestry of surprising and historically overlooked figures spanning forty centuries and six continents historian Matthew Lockwood narrates lives filled with imagination and wonder curiosity connection and exchange Familiar icons of exploration like Pocahontas Columbus Sacagawea and Captain Cook find new company in the untold stories of people usually denied the title explorers including immigrants indigenous interpreters local guides and fugitive slaves He highlights female voyagers like Gudrid Far Traveler and Freyd's Eir ksd ttir Viking women who sailed to North America in 1000 AD and Mary Wortley Montagu whose pioneering travels to Constantinople would lead to the development of the world's first smallpox vaccine Figures like Ghulam Rassul Galwan a guide for European travelers in the Himalayas reveal the hidden labor expertise and local enthusiasm behind many grand stories of discovery Other characters like David Dorr a man born into slavery in New Orleans who embarked on a Grand Tour of Europe and Egypt embody discovery and wonder as universal parts of the human condition As Lockwood makes clear people of every background imagine new worlds Adventurers from every corner of the globe search for the unknown and try to understand it remaking the world and themselves in the process Exploration is for everyone who sets off into the unknown It is the inheritance of all
