Mungo The Man Who Laughs:

Alan the Red Fox Reid Ross Fitzgerald, Stephen Holt, 2010 Arguably Australia's most influential political journalist Alan The Red Fox Reid covered Australian politics from the 1930s to the 1980s During his career he was both a chronicler of and a player in Australian politics In this book Ross Fitzgerald and Stephen Holt take us into a Machiavellian behind the scenes world of recurrent plots crises and leadership challenges and show how it was possible for a skilled journalist to help shape both public perceptions and actual outcomes of political power plays Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum, 2002-03-01 In Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum provides a devastating account of the Howard government's treatment of the refugees as well as delineating the factors in Australian history which have worked towards prejudice and those which have worked against it ranging from Calwell's postwar immigration policy to the recent revelations of beat ups and distortions in the 2001 election campaign This is a powerful account of how the government played on what was ultimately the race issue In an essay which is by terms witty dry and bitingly understated Mungo MacCallum asks what epithets are appropriate for a prime minister who has brought us to this pass He also raises the question of whether Australia's contemporary treatment of refugees has anything in common with the sane and decent policies that have characterised the better moments in our history it will take a long time to recover from the campaign of hate and fear which was deemed to be necessary to return the Howard government in the first year of the new millennium Mungo MacCallum Girt By Sea This most cold eyed of one time Canberra chroniclers brings to this story all his wit and dryness and power of mind It's a sad tale though it is everywhere enlivened by MacCallum's tendency to suggest that spades really are bloody shovels at the end of the day Peter Craven A document of immense power MacCallum's essay will stand as a record of Australia's shame and depravity It will haunt us Julian Burnside Australian Book Review Mungo's assertion that Howard is a man with no vision only division to his name and his recognition that Howard will never have the approval of those elites he so gratuitously desires is a blistering strike at the Liberal man Geoff Parkes Journal of Australian Studies Mungo MacCallum has long been one of Australia's most influential and entertaining political journalists in a career spanning more than four decades Mungo has worked with the Australian the Age the Financial Review Sydney Morning Herald and numerous magazines as well as the ABC SBS Channel Nine and Channel Ten His books include the bestselling Mungo The Man Who Laughs The Good the Bad and the Unlikely Australia's Prime Ministers and The Whitlam Mob Beyond Belief John Button, 2002-02-01 In Beyond Belief John Button looks at what has gone wrong with the Labor Party What has happened to the faith of the True Believers and why is the ALP so bad at recruiting new members He offers a tough minded analysis of what went wrong in the last election and asks why the Labor Party has turned its back on its destiny as a party of reform Here is a very cool account of the factions which seem to stand for nothing but their own power bases and the unions who both give and get little from the ALP In a withering analysis John Button looks at the quality of Labor members and the short sightedness of a party turning its back on ideas This is an essay

by a man who still believes in Chifley's light on the hill but who thinks the only hope lies with New Believers Beyond Belief represents one of the coolest and most disheartening accounts of a great political party this country has seen This is the Australian Labor Party seen from the perspective of an elder statesman who has an absolute belief in the moral superiority of the Labor cause but who seriously doubts whether the ALP will ever achieve government again and who distinctly implies that in its present state it is not fit for it Peter Craven Introduction After the election debacle some people blamed the Tampa and September 11 But the simple fact is that the ALP had not built an adequate policy profile or built up sufficient enthusiasm and respect for its style of politics Without these it had no hope of differentiating its position on refugees and asylum seekers from the government's when this became the key issue of the election John Button Beyond Belief This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 5 Girt by Sea from Alison Broinowski Gerard Henderson John Hirst Philip Ruddock Angela Shanahan Robyn Spencer and Mungo MacCallum Overland, 2004 The Bulletin, 2001
