Risk Taker, Spy Maker Barry Michael Broman, 2020-07-20 Broman's true tales of putting his life on the line recruiting and running spies in a dozen countries are the stuff of action movies. Peter Arnett Pulitzer Prize winning author of Live from the Battlefield. Joining the CIA after fighting in Vietnam as a Marine, Barry Broman's first posting was war-torn Cambodia. He was present at the fall of Phnom Penh in 1975, escaping just before the Khmer Rouge took power. During his career, he was twice chief of station, once a deputy chief of station, and he supervised an international paramilitary project in support of the Cambodian resistance to Vietnamese invaders. He was actively involved in several assignments in counter-narcotics operations in Southeast Asia, including a major bust that yielded 551 kilograms of high-grade heroin from a major drug trafficker. His favorite agent against a variety of hard targets was a fellow whose only demand was that his assignments be life-threatening. He survived them all. As amazing as the characters Broman has met are the places he's been, with visits to little-known and rarely seen places like the Naga Hills on the India-Burma border, the world-famous but off-limits jade and ruby mines of Burma, and the isolated Banda Islands of Indonesia, the home of nutmeg. Broman's engaging tone is complemented by photographs taken throughout his career, many of them his own, made using the skills he learned as a teenager working for the Associated Press in Southeast Asia, including Marines in action in Vietnam, the ravages of war in Cambodia, and opium buyers forcing growers to sell in Burma. A remarkable life story. Booklist

What Dreams Were Made Of Sean Griffin, 2011-04-28 Humphrey Bogart, Abbott and Costello, Judy Garland, and Mickey Rooney, John Wayne, Rita Hayworth, and Betty Grable. Images of these film icons conjure up a unique moment in cinema and history, one of optimism and concern, patriotism and cynicism. What Dreams Were Made Of examines the performers who helped define American cinema in the 1940s, a decade of rapid and repeated upheaval for Hollywood and the United States. Through insightful discussions of key films, as well as studio publicity and fan magazines, the essays in this collection analyze how these actors and actresses helped lift spirits during World War II, whether in service comedies, combat films, or escapist musicals. The contributors, all major writers on the stars and movies of this period, also explore how cultural shifts after the war forced many stars to adjust to new outlooks and attitudes particularly in film noir Together they represented the hopes and fears of a nation during turbulent times enacting on the silver screen the dreams of millions of moviegoers Equatorial Guinea Ibrahim K Sundiata,2019-04-11 The troubled history of Equatorial Guinea reflects the history of other developing nations The author traces the state s troubled path from colonialism to independence emphasizing the obstacles that separate Equatorial Guinea from complete self sufficiency

Calm Clarity Due Quach, 2018-05-15 Author of the viral Medium piece Poor and Traumatized at Harvard Due Quach shares her Calm Clarity program to show readers how to deal with toxic stress and adversity We often don't realize how much control we have over our thoughts feelings and actions on some days the most minor irritation can upset us but on others we are in our best form and can rise to challenges with grace These fluctuations depend on the neural networks firing in our brains and we have the power to consciously break hardwired thought patterns Due Quach developed an intimate understanding of the brain during her personal journey of healing from post traumatic stress disorder According to Quach people function in three primary emotional states Brain 1.0 Brain 2.0 and Brain 3.0 In Brain 1.0 people act out of fear and self preservation Brain 2.0 involves instant gratification and chasing short term rewards at the expense of long term well being Brain 3.0 is a state of mind that Quach calls Calm Clarity in which people's actions are aligned with their core values As Quach confronted PTSD and successfully weaned herself off medication she learned how to activate exercise and strengthen Brain 3.0 like a muscle In Calm Clarity she draws on the latest scientific research and ancient spiritual traditions alike to show us how we too can take ownership of our thoughts feelings and actions in order to be our best selves
