Remaking American Communities David C. Soule, 2007-11-01 Urban sprawl has gained much national attention in recent years Sprawl involves not only land use issues but also legal political and social concerns It affects our schools the environment and race relations Comprehensive enough for high school students and also appropriate for college undergraduates Remaking American Communities delves into the challenges of urban sprawl by turning to some of America's top thinkers on the problem including Robert Yaro president of the Regional Plan Association Other cutting edge essays include a foreword about the emergence of sprawl by nationally syndicated columnist Neal Peirce views about race and class by former mayor of Albuquerque David Rusk and a discussion of transportation dynamics by Curtis Johnson president of the CitiStates Group The essays in this collection explore the core issues of sprawl and the agenda for dealing with it Complete with a glossary resources and contact information for smart growth alliances this book is extremely user friendly David C Soule offers an unbiased viewpoint of this national phenomenon in a way that will be accessible to students and those with little background in the issue

An Annotated Bibliography on Property Taxes, Planning, and Development Marshall Martin Arnold Feldman, 2004 Minorities in the Sunbelt Franklin J. James, Betty L. McCummings, Eileen A. Tynan, 1984 Will minorities be able to fully participate in the high growth areas of America Are Denver Houston and Phoenix the new land of opportunity for minorities Or is their growth pattern merely replicating that of the older areas Housing is crucial in this arena What are the facts In this pathbreaking effort blending empirical data and insight the challenge becomes evident Hispanics are as much the victims of discrimination as are blacks This is the conclusion of this major new study of discrimination and segregation faced by blacks and Hispanics in Sunbelt cities The book evaluates the fair housing efforts of selective states and cities in the Sunbelt region and identifies an agenda for state and local action

The Fiscal Impact Guidebook Robert W. Burchell, David Listokin, Robert W. Lake, Rodney E. Engelen, 1979 Evaluating Traditional Fiscal Impact Analysis Samina Raja, 2002 Crisis and Constraint in Municipal Finance James H. Carr, 1984 Throughout the United States local governments are experiencing sustained and mounting financial difficulties As fiscal pressures edge upward cities find it difficult to make ends meet And while the most acute financial hardships are felt by older declining industrial complexes the need to reduce spending cut services improve productivity and increase locally raised revenues has been recognized by a steadily growing number of municipalities across the country Local governments have entered an age of austerity wherein traditional notions of budgeting and service provision have been brought into question Elected officials and financial managers have begun rethinking the manner in which scarce resources are allocated they have also given significant attention to the ways in which revenues are generated Carr argues that we are now in a post industrial society moving from urban centers to suburban and non metropolitan jurisdictions As a result we are moving from an economy benefitting from prolonged periods of vigor and lower interest rates to an economy characterized by extended periods of recession Crisis and Constraint in Municipal Finance identifies eight principal areas of concern to budget makers and municipal managers Beginning with ways to identify fiscal performance this volume reviews cutback practices budgeting principles revenue raising strategies alternative public service delivery systems and economic development initiatives Also reviewed are the changing roles of the federal and state governments in local financial matters as well as the fiscal prospects for local government finances in the coming years This is an important work that addresses concerns of the economy and should be read by urban planners and economic advisors Local Public Finance Impact Model Dennis P.
