[An Account of His Life and Work.], Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective Luxury and the Ruling Elite in Socialist Hungary György Majtényi, 2021-11-02 After World War II a new community of elite emerged in Hungary in spite of the communist principles espoused by the government In Luxury and the Ruling Elite in Socialist Hungary György Majtényi allows us a peek inside their affluence Majtényi exposes the lavish standard of living that the higher echelon enjoyed complete with pools Persian rugs extravagant furniture servants and groundskeepers They shopped in private stores stocked with expensive meats and tropical fruits just for them They benefited from access to everything from books telephone lines and international travel to hunting grounds soccer games and even the choicest cemetery plots But Majtényi also reveals the underbelly of such society particularly how these privileges were used as a way of maintaining power initiating or denying entry to party members and strengthening the very hierarchies that communism promised to abolish Taking readers on a fascinating and often surprising look inside the manor homes and vacation villas of wealthy post World War II Hungarians Majtényi offers fresh insight into the realities of patriarchy loyalty gender and class within the communist regime On the Artistic Representation of Industrial Disputes in the Shadow of Repression in European Art Filip Dorssemont, 2024-07-29 This book is the first volume on the artistic representation of industrial disputes in European art from 1870 to 1914 since the catalogue of the landmark exhibition Streik Realität und Mythos organized by the Deutsches Historisches Museum 1992 It has been written by a group of scholars who share a keen interest in social history and the history of art as well as in depth knowledge of industrial relations and collective labour law Seeking to transcend a purely western European perspective the book offers unprecedented insights into artistic production in Poland and Hungary from the 19th century to the communist era It even goes beyond the European continent examining the United States and Mexico The media explored include painting sculpture the graphic arts and photography Further the book deals with artists great Carlo Carrà Walter Crane James Ensor Juan Gris Karel Kollwitz Constantin Meunier Mihály Munkácsy Th

ophile Alexandre Steinlen and Jan Toorop and small sometimes even anonymous The artistic styles range from social realism naturalism and neo impressionism to futurism and socialist realism All stages of industrial disputes from the causes of strikes to their violent suppression are subjected to iconographical and iconological analysis combined with perspectives from visual studies critical art and gender studies Agricultural workers miners construction workers and textile workers fill the scenes Most of them are subordinate workers others are bogus independent workers and migrant workers Given its scope the book will be of interest to art historians labour law scholars and specialists in industrial relations East European Accessions
