The World of the John Birch Society D. Mulloy, 2014-06-27 As far as members of the hugely controversial John Birch Society were concerned the Cold War revealed in stark clarity the loyalties and disloyalties of numerous important Americans including Dwight Eisenhower John Kennedy and Earl Warren Founded in 1958 as a force for conservative political advocacy the Society espoused the dangers of enemies foreign and domestic including the Soviet Union organizers of the US civil rights movement and government officials who were deemed soft on communism in both the Republican and Democratic parties Sound familiar In The World of the John Birch Society author D J Mulloy reveals the tactics of the Society in a way they've never been understood before allowing the reader to make the connections to contemporary American politics up to and including the Tea Party These tactics included organized dissemination of broad based accusations and innuendo political brinksmanship within the Republican Party and frequent doomsday predictions regarding world events At the heart of the organization was Robert Welch a charismatic writer and organizer who is revealed to have been the lifeblood of the Society's efforts The Society has seen its influence recede from the high water mark of 1970s but the organization still exists today Throughout The World of the John Birch Society the reader sees the very tenets and practices in play that make the contemporary Tea Party so effective on a local level Indeed without the John Birch Society paving the way the Tea Party may have encountered a dramatically different political terrain on its path to power When Hollywood Came to Town James V. D'Arc,2010-09-01 For nearly a hundred years the state of Utah has played host to scores of Hollywood films from potboilers on lean budgets to some of the most memorable films ever made including The Searchers Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid Footloose and Thelma Louise This book gives readers the inside scoop telling how these films were made what happened on and off set and more As one Utah rancher memorably said to Hollywood moviemakers don't take anything but pictures and don't leave anything but money Shot in New Zealand Duncan J. Petrie,2007 Much of the visual impact of New Zealand films can be attributed directly to the cinematographer the creative individual primarily responsible for the look of a film The cinematographer is both an artist and a craftsman combining a fine aesthetic sensibility and visual eye with a deep technical understanding of the properties of light lenses film stocks and processing The contribution of the cinematographer to the visual representation of the nation is as significant as that of other visual artists such as painters and photographers Drawing heavily on in depth interviews with a dozen of this country's cinematographers Shot in New Zealand profiles their careers and creative contribution to New Zealand cinema charting their creative achievements experiences working with local and international film makers and resourcefulness in dealing with often limited resources and the harsh New Zealand light Includes the following cinematographers Warrick Attewell James Bartle Alun Bollinger Graeme Cowley Stuart Dryburgh Donald Duncan Allen Guilford Kevin Hayward Murray Milne Leon Narbey Simon Raby and John Toon Lethal Shadow Stephen G. Michaud,1994 Initially apprehended for passing phoney money James Mitchell DeBardeleben proved to be a sadistic sex killer on a par with Ted Bundy Here for the first time is the inside story of his crimes trials and ultimate appointment with justice along with the inner workings of the Secret Service investigation 8 page photo insert
