Terrorism in America remedies that as six expert authors discuss the threats of Americans to security interests in the United States and elsewhere exploring what can and should be done to reduce a risk that may threaten the very survival of the free world Terrorists in Our Midst focuses not only on foreign nationals operating in the United States but also on American citizens participating in terror networks at home and abroad The book presents an overview of both conventional and unconventional terrorism surveys the terrorist threat in the United States by state and nonstate actors and analyzes the foreign affinity links of American operatives in this country and abroad Most important for the safety and security of the United States it offers an assessment of what policies worked and what did not work specifying a best practices agenda of recommendations that should be adopted by the United States and the international community

Beyond the Final Score Victor D. Cha, 2009 The Beijing Olympics will be remembered as the largest most expensive and most widely watched event of the modern Olympic era But did China present itself as a responsible host and an emergent international power much like Japan during the 1964 Tokyo Games and South Korea during the 1988 Seoul Games Or was Beijing in 2008 more like Berlin in 1936 when Germany took advantage of the global spotlight to promote its political ideology at home and abroad Beyond the Final Score takes an original look at the 2008 Beijing games within the context of the politics of sport in Asia Asian athletics are bound up with notions of national identity and nationalism refracting political intent and the processes of globalization For China the Beijing Games introduced a liberalizing ethos that its authoritative regime could ignore only at its peril Victor D Cha former director of Asian affairs for the White House evaluates Beijing's contention with this pressure considering the intense scrutiny China already faced on issues of counterproliferation global warming and free trade
