Murder in the Museum John Rowland, 2016-04-01 When Professor Julius Arnell breathes his last in the hushed atmosphere of the British Museum Reading Room it looks like death from natural causes Who after all would have cause to murder a retired academic whose life was devoted to Elizabethan literature Inspector Shelley s suspicions are aroused when he finds a packet of poisoned sugared almonds in the dead man s pocket and a motive becomes clearer when he discovers Arnell s connection to a Texan oil millionaire Soon another man plunges hundreds of feet into a reservoir on a Yorkshire moor What can be the connection between two deaths so different and so widely separated Murder in the Museum of Man Alfred Alcorn, 1997 The dean of a museum in England has been murdered and his body served as a series of dishes ranging from roast dean to fried dean Suspicion falls on the ethnology department whose members are rumored to have been dabbling in cannibalism Norman de Ratour of the registrar s office investigates Murder in the Museum John Herbert S. may be connected to Emily's death. On a hunch, he and Annie travel to Toronto, Canada, where he learns of the original map and a manuscript written in 1847 that were unearthed during an archaeological dig. The manuscript contains information about a ship that capsized during a fierce storm on Lake Ontario in 1785. Now Ed has clues as to why the murder occurred, but he still doesn't know who committed the crime. Or does he? This clean fiction novel contains no graphic violence, explicit intimate scenes, or cursing, but there's plenty of action, adventure, and a surprise ending. Annie enjoys cooking, and the book also provides gourmet recipes she prepares for friends and family as the hunt goes on to discover who committed this shocking crime.

The Counterfeit Murder in the Museum of Man Alfred Alcorn, 2010

When Norman de Ratour discovers the body of Heinrich von Grumh in a car outside his beloved Museum of Man, he knows he faces a sticky public relations mess. What he doesn't know is that the gun used to kill the honorary curator is his own Smith Wesson revolver. Implicated publicly, embarrassed, his life's work in danger, Norman becomes the prime person on a list of unusual suspects. Along the way, he both lives with and is aided by Alphus, former denizen of the Primate Pavilion and a creature who has an intellect to be reckoned with, as well as a low, finely articulated opinion of the human species. As Norman endeavors to find the villain and clear his name, he learns that more than coins get counterfeited: that people from the ravishing merry widow Merissa Bonne to the dour Feidhlimidh de Buitler are not always what they purport to be. Replete with institutional spoofery, a plot hedged like a garden maze, and a literate style that treats the English language like the verbal funhouse, it is this third in the Norman de Ratour murder mysteries series that sustains the genre invented by Poe while twisting and bending it into new forms.
