Murder in Boston Ken Engle, 2014-12-09 A shocking true story of crime punishment and injustice in a major American city. Charles Stuart claimed it was a black man who carjacked him shooting both himself and his wife ending both her life and the life of their unborn child. The accusation and subsequent manhunt enflamed the long simmering racial tensions of Boston leading to the arrest of an innocent man. It was then discovered that Stuart had killed his wife and shot himself to cover up the crime seeking a big insurance payout. When his crimes were exposed Stuart jumped off a bridge to his death. Ken Engle explores the story with panoramic vision and a stunning eye for detail. Looking at the crime itself and the police response Engle shows how Stuart's crime unraveled how the truth came out and what the media's response can tell us about the biases through which we view the worst of crimes.
