Murder Artist:

The Murder Artist John Case, 2005 Television news correspondent Alex Callahan must use his relentless investigative skills to rescue his six year old twins from a mysterious abductor dubbed the Piper The Murder Artist Marcus Wiesner, 2008-12-01 Josh's weapons are his writerly skills and journalistic instincts His allegiance is to the Gods of Journalism which means he's committed to getting what's newsworthy into print in this case stories that track a serial murderer But he encounters roadblocks put up by the city fathers and even his own publisher who are bent on suppressing the Jewish angle for fear of panicking the city Luckily he has his foul mouthed night city editor on his side and sometimes his female sidekick Their romantic entanglement added to conflicting loyalties and ambitions makes their partnership rocky Working like an investigative reporter works Josh files stories that bring him closer to identifying the killer understanding why he embraces the twisted psychology of his idol Adolph Hitler and what drives his deadly assaults against Jews connected to the art world The game gets turned around with the killer hunting Josh Who survives a bloody denouement If it's Josh will his romance survive the clash of motivations churned up by the chase and and this is key will the Hitlerite's call for a relentless war against Jews make it into print

The Murder Artist John Case, 2004-10-12 The bestselling author of The Genesis Code and The Eighth Day now strikes his most harrowing chord with a chilling novel that pushes suspense to nearly inhuman limits As a television news correspondent Alex Callahan has traveled to some of the most dangerous corners of the globe covering famine plague and war He's seen more than his share of blood and death and knows what it means to be afraid But what he's never known is the terror that grabs him when on a tranquil summer afternoon he ceases to be an observer of the dark side and to his shock becomes enmeshed in it Separated from his wife and struggling not to become a stranger to his six year old twin sons Alex is logging some all too rare quality time with the boys when they vanish without a trace amid the hurly burly of a countryside Renaissance Fair Then the phone call comes A chilling silence slow steady breathing and the familiar plaintive voice of a child Daddy complete the nightmare and set in motion a juggernaut of frenzy and agony The longer the police search exhausting leads without success the deeper Alex's certainty grows that time is running out And when at last telltale signs reveal a hidden pattern of bizarre and ghoulish abductions Alex vows to use his own relentless investigative skills to rescue his children from the shadowy figure dubbed The Piper Whoever this elusive stranger is the profile that slowly emerges from previous crimes involving twins from the zealously secret world of professional magicians and from the eerie culture of voodoo suggests that The Piper is a predator unlike any other A twisted soul hell bent on fulfilling an unspeakably dark dream A fiend with a terrifying true calling What Alex Callahan is closing in on is a monster with a mission

The Subject of Murder Lisa Downing, 2024-05-31 The subject of murder has always held a particular fascination for us But since at least the nineteenth century we have seen the murderer as different from the ordinary citizen a special individual like an artist or a genius who exists apart from the moral majority a sovereign self who obeys only the destructive urge sometimes even commanding cult followings In contemporary culture we continue to believe that there is something different and exceptional about killers but is the murderer such a distinctive type Are they degenerate beasts or supermen as they have been depicted on the page and the screen Or are murderers something else entirely In The Subject of Murder Lisa Downing explores the ways in which the figure of the murderer has been made to signify a specific kind of social subject in Western modernity Drawing on the work of Foucault in her studies of the lives and crimes of killers in Europe and the United States Downing interrogates the meanings of media and texts produced about and by murderers Upending the usual treatment of murderers as isolated figures or exceptional individuals Downing argues that they are ordinary people reflections of our society at the intersections of gender agency desire and violence
