Basic Library Skills, 5th ed. Carolyn Wolf, 2010-03-22 This brand new edition of Wolf's acclaimed work provides a self-contained short course in essential library skills for patrons of college high school and public libraries. The intent is to provide a quick and easy way to learn to do library research. The exercises contained herein give students hands-on experience by applying rules stated in the text to situations that approach real research problems. Subjects addressed include a brief tour of the library card catalogs and cataloging systems, filing rules, online public access catalogs, subject searching, bibliographies, book reviews, and parts of a book, dictionaries, encyclopedias, handbooks, atlases, gazetteers, periodicals, newspapers, online database searching, and reference sources, literature and criticism, e-books, government information and government documents, biographies, business, career and consumer information, non-print materials, and special services, online computer use in libraries and schools, and hints for writing term papers. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here. For Laci Sharon Rocha, 2006 A search began which lasted an agonizing four months. Wealthy young women are being murdered on Manhattan's exclusive Upper West Side, and the police aren't looking for answers in the right places. Enter Tandy Angel. The first case she cracked was the mystery of her parents' deaths. Now while she's working to exonerate her brother of his glamorous girlfriend's homicide, she's driven to get involved in the West Side murder spree. One of the recent victims was a student at Tandy's own elite school. She has a hunch it may be the work of a serial killer, but the NYPD isn't listening to her, and Tandy can't ignore the disturbing fact that she perfectly fits the profile of the killer's targets. Can she untangle the mysteries in time? Or will she be the next victim?
