Murder In A Hot Flash A Charlie Greene Mystery:

Murder in a Hot Flash Marlys Millhiser, 2015-05-05 Reluctant psychic Charlie Greene is called on to solve the case when a horror film director gets the ax and Charlie's mother is the prime suspect. Between doing lunches, making deals, and being a full-time single mom, Hollywood literary agent and part-time psychic Charlie Greene doesn't have time to solve crimes. But when the number one suspect in the murder of schlock horror director Gordon Cabot is her menopausal mother, Charlie suddenly finds herself a major player in a real-life movie more shocking than any screenwriter could have dreamed up. Cabot's callous disregard for the teeming plant life and critters serving as extras in his overbudget new film has made him plenty of enemies, including Charlie's mother, a biology professor specializing in rodents of the high desert plateau. In spite of their volatile relationship, Charlie's certain that her mother's hot flashes have nothing to do with the corpse chilling out in this remote stretch of Utah desert, and to clear her mom's name, Charlie teams up with swoonworthy superstar environmentalist Mitch Hilsten. Amid warring film crews, wild cliff glides, and fears that Charlie's agency is going under, she and Mitch race to catch a cunning killer of the lethal two-legged variety in this electrifying novel. Murder in a Hot Flash Marlys

Millhiser, 1995 A horror film director gets the ax, literally, and the menopausal mother of Hollywood agent Charlie Green becomes the prime murder suspect. To clear her mom's name, Charlie teams up with hunky movie star Mitch Hilsten. Soon the two sleuths are forced to deal with wild river boat rides, cliff hanging, and even more dead bodies. Can they find the killer? Charlie's best outing yet. Kirkus Reviews Michael's Wife Marlys Millhiser, 2015-05-05 In this modern twist on a Gothic classic, a woman awakens in the desert with no memory of who she is or how she got there. A screeching hawk circling ominously above rouses a woman from sleep. She finds herself immersed in total darkness with no idea of who she is or what she's doing here. Only two things tether her to reality: the intriguing Westerner who gives her a ride into town and a piece of paper tucked into the waistband of her trousers containing the handwritten words "Captain Michael Devereaux, Luke A F B." Soon she discovers that her name is Laurel and Michael Devereaux is the husband she abandoned two years ago along with their newborn son. She has no memory of these missing twenty-four months or of how she ended up in the Arizona desert. She also has no memory of Michael, now a bitter, volatile stranger, or of giving birth to their son. But she makes her way to the remote Devereaux estate where she begins to believe that she is who everyone says she is. As Laurel struggles to put together the missing pieces of her life, it gradually becomes apparent that the shadowy terrors of her past pose a very real danger to her present one that threatens her life and the life of her child. Willing Hostage Marlys Millhiser, 2015-05-05 Taken
