Printmaking in America Trudy V. Hansen, Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum, 1995-09 The years from 1960 to 1990 witnessed an extraordinary outburst of creative activity among American printmakers A number of important new workshops were founded from such influential studios as Universal Limited Art Editions as Long Island and the Tamarind Lithography Workshop in Los Angeles to small presses throughout the country In contrast to traditional European ateliers where professional printers reproduced artists designs for commercial edition printing the new American workshops stressed collaboration and emphasized radical experimentation with medium and process The work produced in these studios often owed as much to the imaginative gifts of the printer as the conception of the artist

Bruegel and the Creative Process, 1559-1563 Margaret A. Sullivan, 2017-11-30 The art Bruegel produced between 1559 and 1563 presents a rare opportunity to investigate a concentrated period of productivity by one of the world s greatest artists In this brief period Bruegel produced some of his most original works the first pictorial collection of contemporary customs in Carnival and Lent the first painting with children s activities as its subject in Children s Games the first large scale painting of a proverb collection the unique and enigmatic Dulle Griet Mad Meg and the extraordinary Triumph of Death his disturbing vision of men and women fighting off the onslaught of death In this comprehensive study Margaret A Sullivan accounts for this burst of creativity its intensity innovation and brevity by taking all aspects of the creative process into consideration from the technical demands of picture making to the constraints imposed by the dangerous religious and political situation
