Parti Pris Des Choses:

The Nature of Things Francis Ponge, 1995 Poetry Translated from the French by Lee Fahnestock First published in 1942 and considered the keystone of Francis Ponge's work Le parti pris de choses appears here in its entirety It reveals his preoccupation with nature and its metaphoric transformation through the creative ambiguity of language My immediate reaction to Lee Fahnestock's translation was this must certainly be Ponge's voice in English She gives us his tones rhythms humor and maneuvers his word play with respect and unostentatious discretion Barbara Wright translator of Queneau Pinget Sarraute

Le parti pris des choses Francis Ponge, 1979 Translations from Le Parti Pris Des Choses of Francis Ponge Francis Ponge, Daphne Marlatt, 1968 The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R da She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today's readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairian lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period

Mimologics Gärard Genette, 1995-01-01 Do words their sounds and shapes their lengths and patterns imitate the world Mimology says they do First argued in Plato's Cratylus more than two thousand years ago mimology has left an important mark in virtually every major art and artistic theory thereafter Mimology is the basis of language sciences and incites occasional hilarity Genette treats matters as basic and staid as the alphabet and as reverberating as the letter R in ur linguistics Mimologics bridges mainstream literary history and Genette's expertise in critical method by undertaking an intensive study of the most vexed of literary problems language as a representation of reality From publisher's description

Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint Aubert, 2020-08-04 Merleau Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau Ponty's extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co naissance from Val ry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression Lehrbuch Sándor G. J. Hervey, Ian Higgins, 1992 Teachers handbook 428 0241 H579tt

Redefining Resistance Esther Rowlands, 2021-10-18 The study of resistance developed here by Dr Esther Rowlands consists of a fresh interrogation of the notion of resistance discourse Here for the first time this detailed study of selected wartime texts produced by Francis Ponge Benjamin Perret Henri Michaux and Antonin Artaud compiled between 1936 and 1946 presents a specific critique of resistance which investigates the possibility for opposition and subversion to take place without direct allusion to the object of resistance This investigation questions the criteria according to which literature is perceived as being resistant and suggests that historical and political referentiality may be deemed retaliative and reactionary thereby risking replication of the dominant order The relationship between language and power structures is elucidated through allusion to modern theorists Michel de Certeau Michel Foucault Ross Chambers and Françoise Proust The necessary framework for a study of the poetic voice draws upon aspects of the post structuralist work of Jacques Derrida and Giles Deleuze incorporating specific theories expounded by the Surrealist leader André Breton The works of the above theorists are foundational to this new critique of poetic discourse which when applied by Dr Esther Rowlands to the wartime works of the four named writers suggests that language itself may be recognised as a locus of resistance This book is designed to be of interest both to undergraduates and to researchers studying Surrealism Second World War Time Literature and Critical Theory Six French Poets of Our Time Robert W. Greene, 2015-03-08 During the last sixty to seventy years avant garde poetry in France has evolved in two directions one toward poetry conceived as a means to an end the other toward poetry as an end in itself Focusing on Pierre Reverdy Francis Ponge René Char André du Bouchet Jacques Dupin and Marcelin Pleynet as the modern French poets who most faithfully reflect these directions Robert Greene's chronological study allows us to follow the two pronged evolution of French poetry since 1910 Situating his argument in a detailed historical context and basing it on comparisons with artistic movements and the poets own writings on art and on extended analyses of selected representative poems the author is able to establish a new intellectual historical perspective on contemporary poetry Professor Greene finds that whereas Reverdy Char du Bouchet and Dupin all embrace a conception of poetry as quest as a search for the absolute as the Way of beauty or truth Ponge and Pleynet hold to a view of poetry as j'te as a celebration of the relative as the play and display of language in action What knits them together he concludes is the way in which each poet sums up his era as a stage in the development of twentieth century French poetry Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Enjoyment Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-14
 Philosophy art criticism and popular opinion all seem to treat the aesthetics of the comic as lightweight while the tragic seems to be regarded with greater seriousness Why this favouring of sadness over joy Can it be justified What are the criteria by which the significance of comedy can be estimated vis vis tragedy Questions such as these underlie the present selection of studies which casts new light on the comic the joyful and laughter itself This challenge to the popular attitude strikes into new territory relating such matters to the profundity with which we enjoy life and its role in the deployment of the Human Condition In her Introduction Tymieniecka points out that the tragic and the comic might be complementary in their respective sense bestowing modes as well as in their dynamic functions they might both share in the primogenital function of promoting the self individualising progress of human existence For the first time in philosophy laughter mirth joy and the like are revealed as the modalities of the essential enjoyment of life being brought to bear in an illumination of the human condition

A Poverty of Objects Jonathan Monroe, 2019-05-15
 The prose poem Jonathan Monroe asserts is the genre that does not want to be itself In his view the dominant literary historical role of the prose poem has been to test the limits of generic constraints Monroe here undertakes a comparative and historical investigation of the problematic relationship between prose and poetry and of the development of the prose poem over the past two centuries

Readings in Infancy Jean-Francois Lyotard, 2023-01-26
 Nobody knows how to write Thus opens this carefully nuanced and accessible collection of essays by one of the most important writer philosophers of the 20th century Jean François Lyotard 1924-1998 First published in French in 1991 as Lectures d'enfance these essays have never been printed as a collection in English In them Lyotard investigates his idea of infantia or the infancy of thought that resists all forms of development either human or technological Each essay responds to works by writers and thinkers who are central to cultural modernism such as James Joyce Franz Kafka Hannah Arendt Jean Paul Sartre and Sigmund Freud This volume with a new introduction and afterword by Robert Harvey and Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard's thought and demonstrates his continued relevance today

Objects Observed John C. Stout, 2018-04-13 Objects Observed explores the central place given to the object by a number of poets in France and in America in the twentieth century John C Stout provides comprehensive examinations of Pierre Reverdy Francis Ponge Jean Follain Guillevic and Jean Tortel Stout argues that the object furnishes these poets with a catalyst for creating a new poetics and for reflecting on lyric as a genre In France the object has been central to a broad range of aesthetic practices from the era of Cubism and Surrealism to the 1990s In the heyday of American Modernism several major poets foregrounded the object in their work however in postwar twentieth century America poets moved away from a focus on the object Objects Observed illuminates the variety of aesthetic practices and positions in French and American poets from the years of high Modernism 1909 1930 to the 1990s

Lyrical And Critical Essays Albert Camus, 1968 Here now for the first time in a complete English translation we have Camus's three little volumes of essays plus a selection of his critical comments on literature and his own place in it As might be expected the main interest of these writings is that they illuminate new facets of his usual subject matter The New York Times Book Review A new single work for American readers that stands among the very finest The Nation

Francis Ponge, 2023-04-17 Searching for Presence Robert W. Greene, 2022-04-11 Yves Bonnefoy's writings have won him praise not only from readers and critics of French poetry but also thanks to translations into many other languages from readers and critics of poetry far beyond the francophone world Indeed Bonnefoy may be the most admired poet to have emerged in France since World War II Yet his art criticism dazzling in its scope possibly as original as his poetry is yet to receive the attention it deserves Searching for Presence Yves Bonnefoy's Writings on Art undertakes to fill that lacuna Elusive skirting the ineffable the notion of presence has haunted Bonnefoy for decades Central to the notion for the poet is the fleeting experience of mutuality between self and other of lightning transaction in a transient world of a shared mortal destiny hence a plenitude within finitude In an age when so many of his contemporaries seem to view any form of art as wallpaper spanning a void Bonnefoy's faith in presence is all the more welcome Focusing on his art criticism the aspect of the poet's oeuvre in which the notion of presence is the most salient this study tries to do justice to that fidelity

Animal Acts Jennifer Ham, Matthew Senior, 2014-04-08 Animal Acts records the history of the fluctuating boundary between animals and humans as expressed in literary philosophical and scientific texts as well as visual arts and historical practices such as dissection circus acts the hunt and zoos The essays document a persistent return of animality a becoming animal that has always existed within and at the margins of Western Culture from the Middle Ages to the present

Behold an Animal Thangam Ravindranathan, 2020-01-15 As animals recede from our world what tale is being told by literature's creatures Behold an Animal Four Exorbitant Readings examines incongruous animals in the works of four major contemporary French writers an airborne horse in a novel by Jean Philippe Toussaint extinct orangutans in ric Chevillard stray dogs in Marie NDiaye vanishing bits of hedgehogs in Marie Darrieussecq Resisting naturalist assumptions that an animal in a story is simply literally or metaphorically an animal Thangam Ravindranathan understands it rather as the location of something missing The animal is a lure an unfinished figure fleeing the frame crossing bounds of period genre even medium and language Its flight traces an exorbitant self portrait in which thinking admits to its commerce with life and flesh It is in its animals at the same time unbearably real and exquisitely unreal that literature may today be closest to philosophy This book's primary focus is the contemporary French novel and continental philosophy In addition to Toussaint Chevillard NDiaye and Darrieussecq it engages the work of Jean de La Fontaine Eadweard Muybridge Edgar Allan Poe Lewis Carroll Samuel Beckett and Francis Ponge

The Art Criticism of Francis Ponge Shirley Ann Jordan, 1994

This study of Francis Ponge's essays on contemporary artists L'Atelier contemporain attempts to broaden the popular view of the author as a poet of objects It explores Ponge's perception of art criticism as an inherently problematic genre and exposes the inhibitions surrounding the production of the essays The study demonstrates how Ponge's essays on artists parallel developments in his other works They are seen as instrumental in his movement towards open texts and a stress on the creative process itself as well as opportunities to reaffirm his philosophical and aesthetic stance
