Jazma Online! Interviews, Reviews and More! Richard Vasseur, 2014-02-07 These are the comic book creator interviews comic book reviews published from Jazma Online www.jazmaonline.com Going since 1996 Richard Vasseur Allen Klingelhoets and Paul Dale Roberts keep truckin ahead in the comic book multiverse Partners in Time #2 Kristen Sheley, 2004-09 Who knew that the Middle Ages could be so dangerous A month after their first adventure together Sam Foster and Meg Clayton travel back in time to medieval England with the hope of solving an historic mystery From the start however things go wrong They aren't dressed correctly The locals use strange words and have thick accents And they arrive almost thirty miles away from their intended destination When the steward of the village Geoffrey arrives in the nick of time to save them from some unfriendly locals the worst of their troubles seemed to be over Unfortunately they had just begun Getting Medieval

Carolyn Dinshaw, 1999-09-22 In Getting Medieval Carolyn Dinshaw examines communities dissident and orthodox in late fourteenth and early fifteenth century England to create a new sense of queer history Reaching beyond both medieval and queer studies Dinshaw demonstrates in this challenging work how intellectual inquiry into pre modern societies can contribute invaluable to current issues in cultural studies In the process she makes important connections between past and present cultures that until now have not been realized In her pursuit of historical analyses that embrace the heterogeneity and indeterminacy of sex and sexuality Dinshaw examines canonical Middle English texts such as the Canterbury Tales and The Book of Margery Kempe She examines polemics around the religious dissidents known as the Lollards as well as accounts of prostitutes in London to address questions of how particular sexual practices and identifications were normalized while others were proscribed By exploring contemporary mis appropriations of medieval tropes in texts ranging from Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction to recent Congressional debates on U S cultural production Dinshaw demonstrates how such modern media can serve to reinforce constrictive heteronormative values and deny the multifarious nature of history Finally she works with and against the theories of Michel Foucault Homi K Bhabha Roland Barthes and John Boswell to show how deconstructionist impulses as well as historical perspectives can further an understanding of community in both pre and postmodern societies This long anticipated volume will be indispensable to medieval and queer scholars and will be welcomed by a larger cultural studies audience Dynamics of Family and Intimate Partner Violence Irene Hanson

Frieze, Christina E. Newhill, Rachel Fusco, 2020-05-19 This book provides a research based analysis of the dynamics of several types of violence in families and close relationships as well as a discussion of theories relating to the experiences of victims Drawing on recent research data and case studies from their own clinical experiences the authors examine causes experiences and interventions related to violence in various forms of relationships including children elders and dating or married couples Among the topics covered Causal factors in aggression and violence Theories of survivor coping and reactions to victimization Interventions for abused women and children Other forms of family violence elder abuse sibling abuse and animal cruelty Societal responses to abuse in the family Dynamics of Family and Intimate Partner Violence is a crucial resource for practitioners and students in the fields of psychology and social work vividly tying together theory and real life case studies
