Schulberg, Frank Baker, 1979 The Practice of Health Program Evaluation David Grembowski, 2015-09-16 Reflecting the latest developments in the field the Second Edition provides readers with effective methods for evaluating health programs policies and health care systems offering expert guidance for collaborating with stakeholders involved in the process Author David Grembowski explores evaluation as a three act play Act I shows evaluators how to work with decision makers and other groups to identify the questions they want answered Act II covers selecting appropriate evaluation designs and methods to answer the questions and reveal insights about the program s impacts cost effectiveness and implementation and Act III discusses making use of the findings Packed with relevant examples and detailed explanations the book offers a step by step approach that fully prepares readers to apply research methods in the practice of health program evaluation Handbook of Practical Program Evaluation Joseph S. Wholey, Harry P. Hatry, Kathryn E. Newcomer, 2010-11-04 Praise for the third edition of the Handbook of Practical Program Evaluation Mix three of the most highly regarded evaluators with a team of talented contributors and you end up with an exceedingly practical and useful handbook that belongs on the reference shelf of every evaluator as well as program and policy officials Jonathan D Breul executive director IBM Center for The Business of Government Joe Wholey and his colleagues have done it again a remarkably comprehensive thoughtful and interesting guide to the evaluation process and its context that should be useful to sponsors users and practitioners alike Eleanor Chelimsky former U S Assistant Comptroller General for Program Evaluation and Methodology Students and practitioners of public policy and administration are fortunate that the leading scholars on evaluation have updated their outstanding book This third edition of the Handbook of Practical Program Evaluation will prove once again to be an invaluable resource in the classroom and on the front lines for a public service under increasing pressure to do more with less Paul L Posner director public administration George Mason University and immediate former president the American Society of Public Administration The third edition of the Handbook of Practical Program Evaluation reflects the evolving nature of the field while maintaining its value as a guide to the foundational skills needed for evaluation Leslie J Cooksy current president the American Evaluation Association This third edition is even more of a must have book than its earlier incarnations for academics to give their students a comprehensive overview of the field for practitioners to use as a reference to the best minds on each topic and for evaluation funders and consumers to learn what is possible and what they should expect I ve been in evaluation for 35 years and I used the first and second editions all the time Michael Hendricks Ph D independent evaluation consultant Federal Program Evaluations ,1984 Contains an inventory of evaluation reports produced by and for selected Federal agencies including GAO evaluation reports that relate to the programs of those agencies Innovative Teaching Strategies in Nursing and Related Health Professions Martha J. Bradshaw, Beth L. Hultquist, Debra Hagler, 2019-09-27 Teaching Strategies in Nursing and Related Health Professions Eighth Edition details the trends in teaching strategies and educational technology that promote effective learning for today's students. The Eighth Edition has been updated to provide the most current information and strategies for online learning and incorporating technology across settings. Chapters on blended learning and study abroad programs help students to gain a more diverse and increased global perspective. Highlighting innovative teaching techniques and real world illustrations of the educational strategies, this text goes beyond theory to offer practical application principles that educators can count on.

Evaluation & Prevention in Human Services Jared Hermalin, Jonathan A. Morell, 1981. A notable volume focusing on prevention and evaluation, this book contends that human services must become more accountable to the public and the government by undertaking more efficient and accurate evaluations and being able to support their claims for continued services with accurate studies. The importance of a carefully tailored program design, well-chosen measuring instruments, follow-up assessment, and insistence on control groups for comparison in any study are major topics.

Handbook of Home Health Care Administration Marilyn D. Harris, 2010-10-25. Important Notice: The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition. The Handbook of Home Health Care Fifth Edition has been completely revised and updated to provide up-to-date specific authoritative guidance for the successful administration and management of home health care agencies. An excellent comprehensive text, this Handbook addresses detailed legal and legislative issues, case management processes, and state-of-the-art technology.

Program Evaluation in School Counseling Michael S. Trevisan, John C. Carey, 2020-02-28. Program Evaluation in School Counseling is the first book on program evaluation that looks to the field and literature of program evaluation and then relates methods, procedures, and practices back to the practice of school counseling. Written by two accomplished authors who teamed up to build evaluation capacity among school and school-based counselors internationally, the book highlights their interdisciplinary work covering many years and several continents. Based on the authors' model for teaching program evaluation and their research on school counselor competence in program evaluation, this concise, clear, and practical guide supports the continuing professional development of school counselors through training workshops and self-study. This book addresses the program evaluation knowledge, skills, and understandings that school-based counselors are expected to use in line with the CACREP 2016 Standards. The book is intended as a companion text for university courses in research methods and/or in the organization and administration of counseling services. It is also appropriate as a self-study guide to help practicing school counselors develop expertise in evaluation.

Readings in Rehabilitation Administration T.F. Riggall, J.R. Lorenz, 1985-11-01. Readings in Rehabilitation Administration fills the gap in the training of human service administrators and managers. The selections reflect the growing needs, trends, and new requirements that directly affect the human services at both the national and local levels. This text meets the needs of those innovative educators who are responsive to the needs of students, the human resource field, and the disabled. While practitioners are well-trained in their field, many have little or no education or training for the management roles they assume Readings in Rehabilitation Administration provides for the first time a curriculum content to prepare new administrators The articles included cover a wide range of not only current trends but classic topics which have passed the test of time An extensive bibliography categorizes rehabilitation administration management articles published during the past decade Rapid research in action: Lessons from the field Ginger A. Johnson,Cecilia Vindrola-Padros,2023-07-05 Program Evaluation and Performance Measurement James C. McDavid,Irene Huse,Laura R. L. Hawthorn,2018-10-16 Program Evaluation and Performance Measurement offers a conceptual and practical introduction to program evaluation and performance measurement for public and non profit organizations James C McDavid Irene Huse and Laura R L Hawthorn discuss topics in a detailed fashion making it a useful guide for practitioners who are constructing and implementing performance measurement systems as well as for students Woven into the chapters is the performance management cycle in organizations which includes strategic planning and resource allocation program and policy design implementation and management and the assessment and reporting of results The Third Edition has been revised to highlight and integrate the current economic political and socio demographic context within which evaluators are expected to work and includes new exemplars including the evaluation of body worn police cameras Program Evaluation and Family Violence Research Sally K. Ward,David Finkelhor,2014-05-22 Understand and evaluate family violence programs for your community Twenty years ago the major issue in creating interventions to prevent domestic violence was persuading the courts the funding agencies and society that domestic violence was a serious problem worthy of time trouble and money Now that the importance of domestic violence has been established we need safe and effective ways to evaluate those interventions to see which ones are working and how they can be improved Program Evaluation and Family Violence Research brings together some of the best minds in the field discussing such vital evaluation issues as policy implications alternative designs for evaluation studies and ethical concerns This comprehensive book approaches the vexed question of evaluation with compassion as well as scientific rigor Clearly traditional double blind studies and control groups are difficult to conduct when family violence is the subject it is ethically indefensible to sit back and watch abusers hurt their mates or children when interventions are available Yet finding usable methods of program evaluation is also essential Program Evaluation and Family Violence Research confronts these questions and discusses practical ways to evaluate a variety of domestic violence programs Program Evaluation and Family Violence Research draws on years of experience to address the difficult questions raised including going beyond evaluating program effectiveness to analyze why and how interventions help change behavior creating new research designs to adapt to the unique concerns of the family violence field using meta analysis for program evaluation research determining the interaction between research and program results identifying barriers between community activists and social scientists that may impede research Program Evaluation and Family Violence Research offers fresh and creative ways to do program evaluations guarantee subjects physical and emotional safety
