Share The Care An Evaluation Of A Familybased Respite Care Service:

"Share the Care" Kirsten Stalker,1990 Share the Care examines the different ways in which respite care schemes operate focusing in particular on the Share the Care service in Lothian and the experience of parents of children with learning difficulties of using the scheme respite carers families facing an extended wait for respite and families who withdraw from the scheme The Children Act Great Britain. Dept. of Health,1991 How will the Children Act affect work with disabled children This guidance outlines the responsibilities of social services departments SSDs under the Act stating that they have a clear duty to provide services to children with disabilities Treating disabled children as children first is of paramount importance However there is a need for all staff who may be involved in providing a service to a child with a disability to be aware of legislation and SSDs should ensure that advice expertise and resources are available for their staff when needed Development in Short-term Care Kirsten Stalker,1996 The first book to bring together and review the findings of research into short term care services for a range of user groups this book addresses the question of short term care from many perspectives Particular attention is paid to the views of those in direct receipt of the service while the issues of costings and quality and the current research on provision to particular groups including disabled children and people with dementia are also examined The Evaluation Handbook for Health Professionals Anne Lazenbatt,2002-04-04 This easy to use handbook is a useful resource for all health professionals engaged in processes of evaluation in a variety of contexts within the world of healthcare Encouraging an evidence based approach to practice it provides guidelines on how to design and evaluate an intervention examples of good practice reliable and easy to use measures advice on how to work effectively Designed to prompt self evaluation and group project evaluation it illustrates how simple evaluation methods can help to break down the divisions between research and practice It shows how more practitioners can apply such methods to improve the quality of care as well as the treatments and services which they offer their patients and clients The examples drawn from clinical settings community practice and work in the voluntary sector demonstrate the kind of evaluation that can be undertaken by a small scale team or a single practitioner with limited resources The Evaluation Handbook will be a useful source of reference for those new to evaluation as well as more experienced managers and researchers International Review of Research in Mental Retardation Laraine Masters Glidden,2003-05-03 International Review of Research in Mental Retardation is an ongoing scholarly look at research into the causes effects classification systems syndromes etc of mental retardation Contributors come from wide ranging perspectives including genetics psychology education and other health and behavioral sciences Reconceptualising Work with 'Carers' Kirsten Stalker,2002-11-15 Demonstrating the scope and diversity of caring the contributors highlight the positive aspects of caring and the interdependence of many caring relationships but also broach the sensitive and complex subject of poor care and the importance of identifying and meeting the needs of hidden carers Disabled Children and the Law Janet Read,Luke J. Clements,David Ruebain,2006

Now in its completely updated second edition this accessible guide provides essential information about how the law can be used to promote good practice and policy development for disabled children and young people The authors take an anti discriminatory and inclusive approach that involves parents and children in decision making and advocacy They summarise recent research on common needs and problems of disabled children young adults and their families and what support services are valued by them Individual chapters cover issues affecting children at different stages in the lifecourse including receiving diagnosis ensuring educational and social inclusion and establishing autonomy and independence in early adulthood The overlapping legal responsibilities of social services health and education are explained and changes arising from the Children Act 2004 are highlighted Disabled Children and the Law is an essential reference for practitioners policy makers students and families

Making Leisure Provision for People with Profound Learning and Multiple Disabilities James Hogg,J. Cavet,2013-11-11 Planning for Life Liam Concannon,2005 Based on original research and interviews with service users carers and service providers this book traces the development of services for people with disabilities and discusses how much things have really changed for today s service users since the days of asylums

Children and Society Malcolm Hill,2014-09-25 Provides a comprehensive overview of the issues research and debates relating to children and the experience of childhood in late twentieth century Britain This volume will address key issues such as juvenile crime poverty child protection and children s rights and their implications for the development of policy and services for children Presents first hand accounts from children and parents EBOOK: Applying Research in Social Work Practice Brian Corby,2006-10-16 What are the key issues and concerns raised by the debate about making social work more of an evidence based profession How is it possible to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of specific research projects How can research findings be applied in social work practice In an era where professions are increasingly being questioned and made more accountable for their actions social workers are required to relate their activities more directly to research findings than ever before In the modern evidence based practice debate there are many claims and counter claims about the benefits of research and about its applicability to social work practice There are also major disputes about what type of research is most valid to the concerns of social work This book tackles these debates with a view to clarifying the issues for students and practitioners in social work and social care fields In particular the book examines The political and ideological disputes surrounding the evidence base debate in social work A wide range of research into social work with children older people mental illness and disability The three main paradigms of social research objectivist subjectivist and critical How research knowledge can be applied to practice Applying Research in Social Work Practice presents social work students and practitioners with the background to the key current issues relating to social work practice and social research It also provides guidance on the skills needed to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of a range of research studies Finally it offers help and guidance about how research can actually be applied in practice A Textbook of Children's and Young People's Nursing E-Book Edward Alan Glasper, James Richardson, 2010-05-19 This popular textbook is aimed at children's nurses in a wide range of practice settings including primary ambulatory and tertiary care. Covering the full age and specialty spectrum, this text brings together chapters from among the best known children's nurses in the UK. It describes family-centred child healthcare drawing upon practice throughout the UK and further afield. This innovative text provides up-to-date information on a wide range of topics. Each chapter offers readers additional material on Evolve. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations that facilitate interactive learning augment the written chapters and provide information not normally possible in a standard textbook e.g. colour photographs, video clips. Although intended for nurses, the book adopts an interprofessional, problem-solving and reflective approach aimed at students, practitioners and child health educators. Material is offered from levels 1, 3 and some of the ancillary material extends into the postgraduate arena. Each chapter offers readers additional material on an Evolve website. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations augment the written chapters and provide extra information that includes case studies, moving image photographs and text. Aims, objectives, learning outcomes, a summary box in each chapter and key points assist learning and understanding. Professional conversation boxes enliven the text on the page and make it more interesting to dip into. Suggestions for seminar discussion topics to help teachers. Case studies help to relate theory to practice. Prompts to promote reflective practice. Activity boxes suggested visits. Evidence-based practice boxes which highlight key research studies. Annotated bibliographies including details of web sites and full contemporary references to the evidence base. Resource lists including recommended web site addresses. New chapter on blood disorders of childhood. New material on caring for young people and transitions in care. More on childhood eczema, childhood and adolescent mental health, solid tumours of childhood.

Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror, 1992

Law, Rights and Disability Jeremy Cooper, 2000-12-01 This comprehensive volume assesses the relationship between legal rights and disability and the effect of law, legal process and third party professional intervention on the lives of people with disabilities. The contributors, who are all either academics or other professional experts in their field, write in a jargon-free accessible style.

Growing Up with Disability Carol Robinson, Kirsten Stalker, 1998-01-01 This book encompasses a wide range of perspectives on childhood impairment and its social implications. The book adopts a child-centred approach, stressing the importance of communicating with disabled children and includes pieces of writing by young disabled people. Preschool and school-age children describe their behavior and feelings within their own families, substitute families and residential homes. The book explores how such children can best be protected and how their quality of life can be improved. Using the social model of disability, which identifies the material and social barriers to inclusion, contributors give examples of progressive practice and examine the aspirations of young disabled people, their friendships and how they come to terms with adolescence and the transition to adulthood.

Health Care Needs Assessment Dr. Andrew Stevens, 2004 Providing vital updates, this two-volume set describes the central role and aim of health care needs assessment in the NHS health care reforms and explains the epidemiological approach to needs assessment and the effectiveness and availability of services

Social Work and Health Care Rex Taylor, Jill Ford, 1989 Social Service Abstracts ,1990-04 Journal of Intellectual Disability Research ,1992 Prevention and Reunification in Child Care Peter Marsh, John Triseliotis, 1993 This detailed symposium explores two of the most sensitive issues in child care preventing the break up of the family and facilitating when possible the return of the child to its own parents
