This kind of living means cultivating compassion, connection, and having the courage to wake up each day and think positively. Regardless of what has happened or what you fear may happen, you need to think that you work hard and do your best. Yes, it is true that individuals are sometimes vulnerable and imperfect, but these do not change the fact that every individual is worthy of belonging and being loved and experiencing wholehearted living. You are said to be a wholehearted person if you display the following:

- Courage to show up, tell your story, and be yourself.
- Sense of worthiness, believing you are worthy enough.
- Have compassion for yourself and for others.
- Ability of connecting with other people.
