Renandya, Christine Coombe, Yazid Basthomi, 2018-06-27 This proceedings book captures a wide range of timely themes for readers to be able to foresee the digital era's impact on English teaching in non-English speaking countries. English used in the global environment, the frequent mobile communication and the use of AI-based translators are bringing about dramatic changes in our English language learning and teaching. Who can provide us the wisdom to know what to do? Those scholars going through these complex environmental changes. A collection of puzzle pieces may bring us a better contour for the future than a perfectly edited book. It's indeed a pleasure reading these insightful pieces to gain wisdom for the future of ELT practices in global contexts. Critical Pedagogies in English Language Teaching and Learning in South East Asia Joanna Joseph Jeyaraj, Tamas Kiss, David D. Perrodin, Critical Pedagogies in English Language Teaching and Learning in South East Asia explores the emerging yet dynamic field of critical pedagogies within the region. This volume brings together voices from countries like Vietnam, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Indonesia, and Malaysia, offering a unique perspective on critical pedagogies in diverse cultural contexts. Although the application of critical pedagogies in English language education in South East Asia remains limited due to certain cultural, political, and educational traditions, it is still important to discuss possible interpretations of critical pedagogies within this context. Consequently, this volume focuses on understanding barriers to implementation and provides examples of how critical approaches have been adapted to make it culturally and pedagogically acceptable. As an important resource for educators, researchers, and policy makers, this volume promotes inclusive and transformative educational practices within English language education. It serves as a call to action, urging readers to reimagine the potential of critical pedagogies in shaping a more equitable and just educational future.
