him in a noticeable way from his companions To begin with he looked out of place He was well grown with a frank handsome face and was better dressed than the average newsboy That was one reason perhaps why he preferred to be by himself rather than to engage in the scramble for customers which was the habit of the boys around him It was half past five The numerous cars that passed were full of business men clerks and boys returning to their homes after a busy day Luke had but two papers left but these two for some unaccountable reason remained on his hands an unusual length of time But at length a comfortable looking gentleman of middle age coming from the direction of La Salle Street paused and said You may give me a News my boy Here you are sir he said briskly The gentleman took the paper and thrusting his hand into his pocket began to feel for a penny but apparently without success I declare he said smiling I believe I am penniless I have nothing but a five dollar bill Never mind sir Take the paper and pay me to morrow But I may not see you I am generally here about this time And if I shouldn t see you you will lose the penny I will risk it sir said Luke smiling You appear to have confidence in me Yes sir Then it is only fair that I should have confidence in you Luke looked puzzled for he didn t quite understand what was in the gentleman s mind I will take both of your papers Here is a five dollar bill You may bring me the change to morrow at my office No 155 La Salle Street My name is Benjamin Afton But sir objected Luke there is no occasion for this It is much better that I should trust you for two cents than that you should trust me with five dollars Probably the two cents are as important to you as five dollars to me At any rate it is a matter of confidence and I am quite willing to trust you Thank you sir but I shall have to leave you or I shall be home late to dinner Before Luke had a chance to protest further he found himself alone his stock of papers exhausted and a five dollar bill in his hand While he stood on the corner in some perplexity a newsboy crossed Randolph Street and accosted him My eyes if you ain t in luck Luke Walton he said Where did you get that bill Is it a one No it s a five Where d you get it A gentleman just bought two papers of me And gave you five dollars Luke Walton Horatio Alger (Jr.),2017-12-03 The Chicago Newsboy Luke Walton Horatio 1832-1899 Alger,Publisher Hurst & Company,2021-09-10 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Luke Walton, Or, The Chicago Newsboy Horatio Alger (Jr.),1905 Luke Walton sells newspapers in Chicago to help support his widowed mother and younger brother Bennie While in Chicago Luke saves a wealthy old lady and takes his life in his hands when he resolves to confront the man who robbed Luke s father of his wealth and bring him to justice
