Lurching from One Near Disaster to the Next Warren Miller, 2011-08 Warren Miller started skiing in 1939 and has been going downhill ever since. On his way down he has produced almost 500 sports films and also published several books. This book, illustrated with many of Warren's original cartoons, chronicles his adventures on skis while boating and as he lurched through all other facets of his life. MotorBoating, 2001-11 Other People's Houses Abbi Waxman, 2018-04-03 Abbi Waxman is both irreverent and thoughtful. 1 New York Times bestselling author Emily Giffin. The author of The Garden of Small Beginnings returns with a hilarious and poignant new novel about four families, their neighborhood carpool, and the affair that changes everything. At any given moment in other people's houses, you can find repressed hopes and dreams, moments of unexpected joy, someone making love on the floor to a man who is most definitely not her husband, record scratches. As the longtime local carpool mom Frances Bloom is sometimes an unwilling witness to her neighbors' private lives. She knows her cousin is hiding her desire for another baby from her spouse. Bill Horton's wife is mysteriously missing, and now this. After the shock of seeing Anne Porter in all her extramarital glory, Frances vows to stay in her own lane. But that's a notion easier said than done when Anne's husband throws her out a couple of days later. The repercussions of the affair reverberate through the four carpool families, and Frances finds herself navigating a moral minefield that could make or break a marriage. Warren's World, A 1970s Teenager Simon Webb, 2013-04-01 What was it like being a teenager in a world without computers, smartphones, DVD players, games consoles, or the Internet? Imagine a time when sharing music meant taking a record round to your friend's house, when making a quick phone call could involve queuing outside a red telephone box. This book looks at the fads and fashions, music, hobbies, and TV programmes which defined the 70s for many youngsters. If you remember riding a chopper, reading Jackie during the Winter of Discontent, or watching the Bay City Rollers on Top of the Pops during the long, hot summer of 1976, this book is for you. A 1970s Teenager is a nostalgic and colourful account of what it was like to be young in the most exciting decade of all. A Grain of Wheat Joseph Jacobson, 2020-05-19 This is the story of how a brilliant but disillusioned man moves from a self-absorbed childhood and adolescence to a dramatic awakening to a life of love and duty that draws him out of himself and plunges him into the world of pure science as his way of serving God and neighbour. The reader journeys with him every step of the way, experiencing with him his two great personal loves, his apparent triumphs, his devastating losses, his shocking moments of confrontation with bitter truth, and his final victory. In the course of this great adventure, the false assumptions on which so much of modern Western society is based crumble out from under him, and out of his disillusionment and despair emerges for him the one Glory which does not crumble away. Set in the American Middle West in the first half of the Twentieth Century, this novel probes many of the issues that we face today and puts them in the context of God's unfolding plan for humanity. Good Practice in Brain Injury Case Management Jackie Parker, 2006-05-15 This book provides a guide to effective case management, outlining all the key issues that professionals working with brain injured people will need to know from understanding what brain injury actually is and how it feels to experience it to strategies for rehabilitation assessing risk and implementing support plans

The Kremlinologist Jenny Thompson, Sherry Thompson, 2018-03-01 An Owl in a Hawk's World Top diplomat Llewellyn E Thompson was everywhere the Cold War was Winner of the New Mexico Arizona Book Award for Best Biography Winner of the New Mexico Arizona Book Award for Best Biography Against the sprawling backdrop of the Cold War The Kremlinologist revisits some of the twentieth century's greatest conflicts as seen through the eyes of its hardest working diplomat Llewellyn E Thompson From the wilds of the American West to the inner sanctums of the White House and the Kremlin Thompson became an important advisor to presidents and a key participant in major global events including the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Yet unlike his contemporaries Robert S McNamara and Dean Rusk who considered Thompson one of the most crucial Cold War actors and the unsung hero of the Cuban Missile Crisis he has not been the subject of a major biography until now Thompson's daughters Jenny and Sherry Thompson skillfully and thoroughly document his life as an accomplished career diplomat. In vigorous prose they describe how Thompson joined the Foreign Service both to feed his desire for adventure and from a deep sense of duty. They also detail the crucial role he played as a negotiator unafraid of compromise. Known in the State Department as Mr Tightlips, Thompson was the epitome of discretion. People from completely opposite ends of the political spectrum lauded his approach to diplomacy and claimed him as their own. Refuting historical misinterpretations of the Berlin Crisis, the Austrian State Treaty and the Cuban Missile Crisis, the Thompsons tell their father's fascinating story. With unprecedented access to Thompson's FBI dossier, State Department personnel files, letters, diaries, speeches and documents, and relying on probing interviews and generous assistance from American and Russian archivists, historians and government officials, the authors bring new material to light, including important information on the U-2, Kennan's containment policy and Thompson's role in US covert operations machinery. This unique and monumental biography not only restores a central figure to history, it makes the crucial events he shaped accessible to a broader readership and gives contemporary readers a backdrop for understanding the fraught United States-Russia relationship that still exists today. MotorBoating, 2002-06 MotorBoating, 2003-01 Warren Miller, on Film in Print Warren Miller (film writer.), Regent's Professor of Political Science Warren Miller, Barbara B Dillman, 1995-06

Late in 1901 Auguste Didier and his Russian bride Princess Tatiana are visiting the Yorkshire seat of the Tabor family for a banquet the King has promised to attend. Determined that tobacco will not sully her priceless tapestries, Lady Priscilla Tabor dispatches gentlemen who wish to smoke to a gloomy Gothic folly which has been allotted for this unseemly purpose. Even His Majesty the King is no exception to the intransigent Lady Tabor's rules. Unfortunately for her ladyship, Tatiana is curious both about the smokehouse and about the filthy habit indulged within its walls. In the middle of the night Auguste finds himself unceremoniously hauled from his bed by his wife to inspect the body she has just discovered there. Once again Didier is forced reluctantly to play detective; there are many secrets to be revealed and questions asked. Is this a case of suicide or murder? And even more important, who is the corpse?
