Anttila, 2013-08-29 The sweetness of music is something that has puzzled Christian theologians for centuries In this study Luther's theology of music is approached from the point of view of pleasure It examines the significance of joy beauty and pleasure in relationship with music and Luther's theology The notion of music as the supreme gift of God requires also a discussion about the idea of gift Music opens up new perspectives into Luther's thinking Luther has seldom been reckoned among aesthetic theologians Nevertheless Luther has a peculiar view on beauty understanding faith as a kind of aesthetic contemplation The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1905 Theological Anthropology, 500 Years after Martin Luther, 2021-07-19 Theological Anthropology 500 years after Martin Luther gathers contributions on the theme of the human being and human existence from the perspectives of Orthodox and Protestant theology These two traditions still have much to learn from each another five hundred years after Martin Luther's Reformation Taking Martin Luther's thought as a point of reference and presenting Orthodox perspectives in connection with and in contradistinction to it this volume seeks to foster a dialogue on some of the key issues of theological anthropology such as human freedom sin faith the human as created in God's image and likeness and the ultimate horizon of human existence The present volume is one of the first attempts of this kind in contemporary ecumenical dialogue Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Enforcing and Eluding Censorship Giovanni Iamartino, 2014-10-16 Enforcing and Eluding Censorship British and Anglo Italian Perspectives brings together a wide range of current work on literary cultural and linguistic censorship by a team of fifteen contributors working in Italy Britain and continental Europe Censorship can take hold of a written text before or after its public appearance it can strike the cultural item as well as the very individuals who created it it can also catch in its net the agents responsible for its publication and diffusion in the case of a printed text authors editors printers publishers librarians and booksellers It can be directed against a single person or against a group an organization a political party or a religious confession The different ways of censorship how it was enforced or eluded in the Italian or Anglo American worlds and often in their mutual relations are the topic of this volume whose contents are divided into two main sections The first entitled Discourse Regulation discusses instances of institutionalized and regulatory censorship and conversely forms of reaction against pressure and control The second section entitled Textual and Ideological Manipulations debates some of the ways in which cultural products can be used to exert
