The Poems of François Villon François Villon, 1982 This new bilingual edition of the 15th century poet's work incorporates recent scholarship Poems François Villon, 2013 One of the most original and influential European poets of the Middle Ages François Villon took his inspiration from the streets taverns and jails of Paris Villon was a subversive voice speaking from the margins of society He wrote about love and sex money trouble the thieving rich and the consolations of good food and wine His work is striking in its directness wit and gritty urban realism Villon's writing spurred the development of the psychologically complex first person voice in lyric poetry He has influenced generations of avant garde poets and artists Arthur Rimbaud and Paul Verlaine have emulated Villon's poetry Claude Debussy set it to music and Bertolt Brecht adapted it for the stage Ezra Pound championed Villon's poetry and became largely responsible for its impact on modern verse With David Georgi's ingenious translation English speaking audiences finally have a text that captures the riotous energy and wordplay of the original With a newly revised French text that reflects the latest scholarship this bilingual edition also features inviting and informative notes that illuminate the nuances of Villon's poems and the world of medieval Paris The Lyrical Poems of François Villon François Villon, Algernon Charles Swinburne, Dante Gabriel Rossetti, William Ernest Henley, Léonie Adams, Robert Louis Stevenson, John Payne, 1979 The lyrical poems of François Villon François Villon, 1979 Poems - Francois Villon François Villon, 2001 Bilingual edition of the medieval French poet ideal for both the general reader and the scholar The Poems of Francois Villon François Villon, This bilingual edition of the 15th century poet's work incorporates recent scholarship The Poetry of François Villon Jane H. responses to Villon by British and North American poets focusing on translations and imitations of his work by Algernon Swinburne Dante Gabriel Rossetti Ezra Pound Basil Bunting and Robert Lowell They are presented as exemplary of the greater trend of rendering Villon into English transporting the reader from the first verse translations of his work in the nineteenth century to post modern adaptations and parodies of Villon in the twentieth By concentrating on the manner in which individual poets have reacted to Villon and to one another the study unravels multiple layers of poetic relations It argues that the relationships that exist between the translated or imitated texts are collaborative as much as they are competitive establishing a canon of Villon in English poetry whose allusions are not only to the French source but to the parallel corpus of English translations and imitations CLAIRE PASCOLINI CAMPBELL holds degrees in medieval and comparative literatures from the University of St Andrews and University College London The Poems of Master François Villon of Paris François Villon, 1916
