Duty, Honor, Country Douglas MacArthur, 2018-12-01 The present volume first published in 1962 consists of two distinguished speeches given by the General of the U S Army Douglas MacArthur The first address took place on April 19 1951 and was held before a joint meeting of the two houses of United States Congress the House of Representatives and the Senate and took place in the Hall of the House of Representatives This meeting followed on just one week from MacArthur s removal from command by President Harry S Truman The second address was held on May 12 1951 and was given to The Members of the Association of Graduates U S M A The Corps of Cadets and Distinguished Guests It was given on the occasion of MacArthur s acceptance of the Sylvanus Thayer Award for outstanding service to the nation which had gone to Eisenhower the year before The event was held at the United States Military Academy in West Point New York The Emperor General Norman H. Finkelstein, 1989 Covers the life and career of the U S Army five star general from his early life in various military outposts to a career in two World Wars General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, January 26, 1880-April 5, 1964 Douglas MacArthur, 1964 Duty, Honor, Country Douglas MacArthur, David Lawrence, George C. Kenney, 2011-10-01 The Biography of General of the Army, Douglas MacArthur Sydney L. Mayer, 1982 General MacArthur Speeches and Reports 1908-1964 , 2000-06-14 The two year search for General Douglas MacArthur s speeches and reports was truly a labor of love My Administrative Assistant Ellen Schaefer and I culled over 1 000 sources including memories biographies histories military magazines such as the Army and Air Force Journals unit histories commercial magazines and newspapers Magazines included such publications as National Geographic Life Magazine and many esoteric less circulated literature such as Military Magazine Retired Officers Magazine Air Force Magazine and so many others We received guidance and assistance from such sources as the U S Military Academy the Engineering School at Ft Leavenworth the Command and General Staff School at Leavenworth the Army War College the MacArthur Archives Director James Zobel the Library of Congress the War Department the sources seemed endless We do believe we were able to capture all the major public speeches and reports covering MacArthur s truly productive years from 1908 through 1964 Contains more than 125 speeches reports It will be interesting to note MacArthur established his personality early in his military career and never veered from this His admonition from his Mother when MacArthur was a student at West Point was never cheat never lie never tattle Adhering to this edict MacArthur offered to resign from the Academy rather than answer questions from the Academy panel investigating hazing and harassment by a group of fellow students MacArthur continued to develop his hard line against political and military intrigue by resolving to always do what he believed right even if he knew no one was watching Further he was determined never to refuse to carry out the order of a senior officer never be insubordinate to constituted authority Douglas MacArthur Douglas MacArthur, 1964 Frontline General: Douglas MacArthur Jules Archer, 2017-01-10 At twenty six Douglas MacArthur was military aide to President Theodore Roosevelt and his courageous leadership of the Rainbow Division in World War I made him a general At the same time his reluctance to heed any authority but his own gained him a reputation of arrogance and insubordination that was to shadow his entire career As MacArthur helped guide defeated Japan to democracy it was remarked that he himself tolerated no democratic questioning of his commands When he was summoned from Japan to take command of the desperately beleaguered forces in Korea the conflict between duty and pride brought his career to a dramatic conclusion With brilliant generalship he saved his army from defeat only to be removed from his post when he refused to obey the president himself Douglas MacArthur's deeds were of heroic proportion but he is and will continue to be one of America's most controversial figures General of the Army Douglas MacArthur's Address to Congress, April 19, 1951, Washington, D. C.; with Highlights of His Career Douglas MacArthur, 1951 as chief of staff of the army Instead an embittered MacArthur was forced to retire The MacArthur family including Douglas never forgave the powerful men who had thwarted Arthur in his greatest ambition and denied him his place in history After one of the most distinguished careers in the history of the U S Army Arthur MacArthur died in relative obscurity while delivering a speech at the fiftieth reunion of his original Civil War regiment A man whose whole life had been soldiering left instructions forbidding a military funeral and asking to be buried in civilian clothes rather than in the uniform he had worn so proudly from the age of seventeen MacArthur died too soon to witness the military exploits of his famous son But there can be no doubt that Arthur made a profound impression on Douglas who regarded the general with awe and spent much of his own life following in his father s footsteps Arthur MacArthur had spent his life striving to be a soldier s soldier in the end it can be truly said that he was the general s general
