Margrethe Jolly,2024-07-18 Shakespeare most often locates his plays in Italy and England and his third most frequent setting is France Indeed nearly 70 scenes at a conservative count and perhaps as many as 100 take place in France in a variety of significant geographical locations French is also the foreign language Shakespeare uses most he is sufficiently au fait with French to use it for puns and scatological jokes He weaves in comments on French fashion ways of walking and skills in horsemanship sword playing and dancing Not only does Shakespeare draw directly or indirectly upon French chroniclers but he also presents us with parts of French history Many French characters people his stage sometimes historical figures appear as themselves and sometimes they are alluded to And the plays demonstrate Shakespeare s reading in French literature and how that influenced him This work shows us just how widely that French presence is evident in his plays Other books and articles may focus on Shakespeare s familiarity with Italy the bible law medicine or astronomy for example This book adds to those shining another spotlight on Shakespeare s remarkable knowledge and eclectic reading confirming him yet again as a truly extraordinary Renaissance figure Global Learning in the 21st Century Tassos Barkatsas,Adam

Bertram,2016-10-26 In this 21st century technological and social changes have never been as rapid as before and educative practices must evolve and innovate to keep up What is being done by educators today to prepare future global citizens What are the skills and competencies that will be required by our students What changes in how we approach education might need to be made This book presents a modern focus on some significant issues in teaching learning and research that are valuable in preparing students for the 21st century The book discusses these issues in four sections The first section presents contemporary innovative curriculum and pedagogical practices that are relevant for the 21st century This also includes how social networking has an integrated role within current educative practice The next section then explores issues and current research around motivation and engagement and how these are changing in this era of technological and social change The third section presents debates around inclusion and social contexts both global and local Finally the fourth section explores current discourses in regard to internationalisation and globalisation and how these are being considered in educational research The book is an important representation of some of the work currently being done for these rapidly changing times It will appeal to academics researchers teacher educators educational administrators teachers and anyone interested in preparing students for a modern and globally interconnected world
