Emerging and Young Adulthood Varda Konstam,2014-10-07 The most distinctive feature of the Second Edition is its theoretical orientation coupled with a focus on understanding emerging and young adulthood from multiple perspectives The updated and expanded book offers readers an opportunity to listen to the voices of emerging and young adults parents and employers which is key to understanding this particular developmental period In addition the case studies provided throughout the book are diverse and detailed The issues of emerging adulthood are complicated nuanced and defy easy characterizations This book provides an opportunity to debunk many established pernicious stereotypes about emerging and young adults The presentation of diverse voices and case material serves as a springboard for discussion and engages readers with material depicting emerging adults in the throes of working through developmental challenges characteristic of this period In addition the recent economic downturn has created havoc and further instability in the lives of emerging and young adults The Second Edition focuses on the effects of as well as possible solutions to unemployment on emerging and young adults A new chapter focuses on career experimentation versus career floundering which is an important distinction

Additional new chapters address the effects of technology as well as depression and anxiety on emerging and young adults. The Second Edition examines emerging and young adulthood within a larger developmental and ecological context. In addition, it ensures that readers are well positioned to understand how the developmental demands of this period intersect with current economic, social, and political realities. It is a must-have resource for developmental, clinical, child, and school psychologists, rehabilitation counselors, and therapists. I/O psychologists and sociologists, as well as for researchers and graduate-level students across these various disciplines.

The Pursuit of God in the Company of Friends Richard C. Lamb, Jr., 2010-03-05. You were not meant to walk alone. Many of us struggle to forge deep relationships with God and other people. Modern society has isolated us as rugged individuals, deceiving us into thinking we can make it through life on our own. Individualism has likewise shaped the pattern of Christian discipleship, privatizing faith and separating us from fellow believers. But we come to know God best when others help us on the way. And our friendships develop best when we seek after God together. What would it look like to pursue God not by ourselves but in the company of friends? According to the model of the New Testament, spiritual transformation takes place in the context of Christian community. By unpacking the Gospel narratives of Jesus' ministry with his disciples, Richard Lamb demonstrates how discipleship develops within the shared community life of groups of Christians. He explores a range of topics such as spiritual friendship, hospitality, leadership, service, conflict, forgiveness, and mission in light of Christian community. Engaging stories from real-life experience show how people can form one another spiritually when their lives are tumbled against one another. If you long for more of God, deeper friendships, or both, this book will help you on the journey. Discover the transforming power of discipleship in community. Join the pursuit of God in the company of friends.

Wanna Play Ruth Herron Ross, Beth Roberts-Pacchione, 2006-10-17. This work is very important, especially for children who struggle to make friends. Every educator who wants to make the world a better place should read this book. William S. Hallowell, Cofounder, Majoda Center for Learning. I recommend the activities to anyone looking for a better way to teach friendship skills to children. Dawnylle Cerula, Speech Language Pathologist, Orchard Friends School, Moorestown, NJ. The authors truly make a difference in the lives they touch. Their program would be a benefit to any school district or child in need. Robin Baker, Coordinator of Special Education, Charter High School for Architecture and Design, Philadelphia, PA.
