Upon a Midnight Clear Unwrap this book and shiver your way through this great collection of gho ho hosts Eerie Whispers Brian Baker,2025-09-30 Why are Canadians afraid of ghosts Canada s paranormal roots run deep We tell ghost stories around flickering campfires and share unexplained encounters with family and friends Yet our polite risk averse nation often buries these experiences rarely encouraging them in the places we live or in our arts and entertainment Fear of stigma and discomfort with the unknown especially death keep the supernatural in the shadows We allow only flirtations with ghosts ghouls and goblins mostly at Halloween Eerie Whispers explores Canada s haunted history drawing from the diverse folklore of its immigrant communities and the traditional stories of Indigenous Peoples It asks why Canadians unlike Americans or the British are reluctant to celebrate this part of our culture Brian Baker encourages us to embrace the uncanny and find the courage needed to amplify our nation s supernatural voice Ghost Stories of Virginia Dan Asfar,2006 Virginia s history is as long as European settlement in North America with the first settlers turning over Virginia sod in the early 17th century In the intervening 400 years Virginia has played host to revolution civil war and the building of a nation The Big Book of Pennsylvania Ghost Stories Mark Nesbitt,Patty A. Herk's portrait of her home province embraces all its extremes from deadly and spectacular weather to dinosaur graveyards and from oil gushers and geysers to barnstorming social reformers and political haymakers. Bronc riders of boom and bust. Alberta's people are a beguiling mixture of opinionated extremists, hardy pioneers and gentle sinners. Alberta is a province that most Canadians simply don't understand, the province most Canadians love to hate. It is regarded as a land of reckless redneck and ignorant individualists. But it is also the province where the Famous Five fought the landmark Person's Case, giving Canadian women the same status as men in the eyes of the law, a province that truly believes in free speech. Albertans tolerate in their midst people whose extreme views on any manner of subjects would make them outcasts elsewhere. And Albertans practice the creed of western neighbourliness, giving assiduously to charity and always lending a hand where help is needed. They are a tough tender bunch, squinting into the wind of determined difference. If you're an Albertan, you'll recognize yourself and your home in this book. If you're not an Albertan, this book will be an education for you. Mavericks will open your eyes to the real Alberta as she was and is.

In his newest collection of ghost stories, Ian Gibbs returns to Calgary, the city of his childhood, to reckon with its better and lesser known haunts and the beginnings of his own sense of the supernatural. Following on the success of his first two story collections, ghost walk guide and host of the Ghosts N Bears Podcast, Ian Gibbs returns to Calgary, the city of his childhood, to reckon with his earliest experiences of the supernatural, corroborate some of the city's better known hauntings, think Heritage Park, Fort Calgary and the Stampede Grandstand, and uncover many more. These thirty stories range from heritage homes and official historic sites to strip malls and suburban basements. Along the way, Ian shares the beginnings of his sense of the paranormal, how he grew to trust his intuition, and relates conversations with friends, old and new, whose outlook and experiences inform, alarm and delight him. With stops at some of Calgary's most famous tourist destinations as well as a number of private properties, the book provides a conversational overview of the city's history, including its original Indigenous inhabitants and early Hudson's Bay days. Ian takes readers inside family mansions, churches and more old sandstone schools than you can shake a stick at. Read about the phantom revellers at the Palliser Hotel, lightning the horse who haunts Firehall No 3, the returning blood stain at Deane House, the little black dog at Foothills hospital, the haunting of Zoo Bridge and a sleepover that started with Atari and junk food and quickly turned more sinister.
